Second Half Slump Fatal To Trojans

A second half meltdown proved costly to Clarencville High's basketball team. After leading, 21-12, after one period and by 29-16, at half-time, the Trojans succumbed to an onslaught Bloomfield Hills Andover team and wound up a 61-53 loser.

Even the fact the Trojans held Andover to only four points in the second period wasn't enough to win in the long run. Howard Richmond came off the bench and hit on seven out of nine shots in the second half to kill Clarencville.

Dave Brandenhal had 20 points on six baskets and eight charities for the Trojans while Bob Duman clicked for 18 for the losers.

Clarencville was restricted to 14 points in the third period and only ten in the final chapter. Meantime, Northville and West Bloomfield Highs found themselves tied for the league lead, with 8-2 records.
