Campaign Opens For Private School Aid

MAIL SUPPORTING proposed state aid to non-public schools has been streaming into the Michigan governor's office and the Senate majority leader's office this past week. By Thursday, well over 20,000 letters were received by the governor's office. Assistants to Emil Lockwood (R-St. Louis), Senate majority leader, said that since each piece of mail is answered, this recent deluge has put a strain on the leader's mail budget.

MICHIGAN STATE University President John A. Hannah critized the "radical dissenters of our day" who try to bring about change by challenging the law. Hannah's comments were included in his annual "State of the University" address delivered at a faculty convocation in East Lansing. He also cited what he called inadequacies in state support for MSU.

TWO FIRES RAGED out of control in downtown Lapeer last Tuesday night, one destroying a quarter of a city block and leaving about 40 persons homeless. While firemen fought this blaze another fire broke out four blocks away. Four firemen were overcome by smoke but were not injured seriously. No other injuries were reported. The two fires destroyed a restaurant, bar, and second floor apartments and leveled a gas station and snack bar.

THE QUESTION of state and federal aid to non-public schools has apparently become one of the delicate underlying issues in the race to fill the vacant State Senate seat in the 23rd District. Both Gary Byker the Republican candidate, and Chester J. Harmsen, say voters appear concerned over the issue. Neither candidate, however, claims to be using the issue as part of his campaign.

STATE SEN. MILTON ZAAGMAN (R-Grand Rapids) has introduced a resolution which would require chairmen of standing and special committees to report every two months the entire expenditure of Senate funds for out-of-state travel. The reports would be made to the secretary of the Senate on a form provided by him and would be printed in the Senate Journal.

•

STATE INSURANCE Commissioner David Dykhouse has predicted group auto insurance plans will become popular in Michigan as a result of an attorney general's opinion. Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley ruled that Michigan law permits lower cost, group-rated auto insurance with the employer paying part of the cost of the premium.

•

A BIPARTISAN bill introduced by 10 representatives in the state House last week proposes to reduce state and county shared of road funds by two per cent each and give four per cent to the state's townships. An attempt to include townships in the sharing of gasoline funds was defeated last fall. One of the ten sponsors was John Bennett. (D-Redford).

•

STATE REGISTRATION and regulation of snowmobiles would be required under a bill introduced in the House by Rep. Robert W. Davis (R-St. Ignace). The bill would set a registration fee of $5 to be paid every three years. The money collected would be used for administration, development and maintenance of snowmobile trails and lands controlled by the state, he explained.

•

A SEVEN MEMBER group, made up of supervising teachers and prospective teachers from around the state, told the State Board of Education that the trouble with Michigan's student teacher program is that it doesn't go fast enough, deep enough or pay enough to serve its purpose.

THE CITY OF MONROE this year will switch from DDT to a new chemical, Methoxychlor, in spraying against Dutch elm fungus.

STATE ROUNDUP

Youth Leader Addresses Pi Lambda Theta

Dr. William H. Van Hoose, former director of the Project Upward Bound program for disadvantaged youth, will address the Alpha Pi chapter of Pi Lambda Theta at 2 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 18, in the Wayne State University Alumni House.

Pi Lambda Theta is a national honor and professional association for women in education.

Dr. Van Hoose is an associate professor of guidance and counseling at WSU and has been involved as a consultant on several midwest guidance projects.

Before joining the WSU faculty in 1965, he was assistant professor of education at the University of Michigan Dearborn campus.

The program also will include a report of a visit to Japan by Joann Gildea, of Grosse Pointe, member of the group. The meeting is open to the public.
