ALL SET — Members of the Suburban Concert Ballet are all ready for the program scheduled for Sunday, March 3, in Our Lady of Mercy's Auditorium. From the top are Neil Thackberry, Linda Pulgini, Robin Spjeldet, Susan Martin and Susan Lichtman. Two ballets are on the bill. The first, "Spring," is based on Schumann's Spring Symphony. The second is a western complete with cowboys, cowgirls and bar girls. Curtain time is 8 p.m. and tickets may be purchased at the door.

JAMES W. PERKINS

'Ridge' Sets Folk Concert

Guitar strings tuned and voices ready, the Orchard Ridge campus of Oakland Community College is busy preparing for its March 6 folk music concert.

The main attraction of the evening will be a young man from Farmington, James W. Perkins, of 28176 Shadylane, a second semester freshman at Orchard Ridge.

"Though he has been playing for almost five years in places like Plum Street's Wisdom Tooth Coffee House, his performance at the campus concert will be his first in the immediate area.

Perkins describes his feelings about the campus concert and local coffee houses saying, "I am really happy to see folk music coming into popularity on the O.C.C. campuses. The places that will cater to the under-21 crowd are usually forced to have rates too steep for most student pocket books. This concert is open to anyone over 17, and with the cover charge only $1.25 this offers a lot of entertainment for a small price."

Appearing with Perkins in the concert and making their debut on stage will be Jack Barry and Rick Thayer, also students at Orchard Ridge. Barry emphasizes rag-time style music in his act, while Thayer has written several new songs for the show.

Food will be available from 7:30 until 11:30 p.m. and is being supplied by the Oakland Community College Gourmet Club.

A special feature of the show will be two short films, written and produced by students at Orchard Ridge, the Chessman Cinematography Club.

The concert is being sponsored by the Orchard Ridge Recorder and is being produced by the UGRSOTBA, an off-campus organization.

Who Owns Forests?

Federal, state and local governments own 67 per cent of the forest land in the West. Privately owned land amounts to only 32.8 per cent of the total.
