Canterbury Commons

by Joanne Takai 626-1786

The beautiful spring-like weather over the weekend brought out Dorothy Botsford raking the grass, Jim McMillen cleaning his garage, Don and Rose Zanger out with Paul on his new bike, the Takai kids, including Bill, out flying kites, Marge Patek and Phyllis Kleinke riding bikes, Chuck Wenzel dragging out his Christmas tree???

Pat McCarthy celebrating St. Patrick's Day with Mary and Lee on swings at the park; Laura Paul, Jodie Yambor, Terri Kleinke, Barb Patek, and Linda Jellison playing baseball; Henry Lesser driving down the street with his golf cap on; Phil Applebaum spreading fertilizer; George Arakelian washing his car; and Jeffrey Gale walking his new puppy. Could it be---Spring just around the corner?

SCOUTS OF TROOP 263 had a taste of Spring mud at a camp-out over the weekend at Bald Mountain Recreation Area. Boys from Canterbury attending were Sean Falahee, Dave Kinsey, and Tom Takai. All are members of the Rattlesnake Patrol.

Speaking of wonderful weather, Jack and Ruth Williamson just arrived home from a two-week trip to San Francisco, Honolulu, Hawaii and Las Vegas. This trip was in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary. Congratulations to both of you.

We'd like to welcome Mary Lou and Bill Grant, Bill Jr., 9, Kathryn, 6, and Danielle, 3, to Fernhill Dr. from Minneapolis.

Also to Fernhill Dr., but from Indianapolis, are Jack and Julie Karagozian and Mike, 19, Judy, 16, Linda, 12, and Jack, 10. To Thorndyke Ct. we welcome Norma and Bert Weining and their three girls, Debbie, 11, Michelle, 12, and Sally, 4. New residents of Club House Lane are Carolyn and Chuck Hartung and Karen, 4, Eric, 2, and Nancy, 6 months.

WE'LL MISS VIVIAN and Bob Earlenbaugh, of Club House Lane, who have already departed for Hartford, Conn., where Bob will be plant manager for Heublein, Inc.

Another trip, but closer to home, was John and Mary Lou O'Boyle's trip to Windsor. Mary Lou's mother, Mrs. Noemi Torre, stayed with the children while they were gone.

On the entertainment side, Mrs. James Pierce entertained business associates of Jim this past week; Mrs. Dan Davis had bridge for a group of Canterburyites. Included were: Mrs. D. Fritz, Mrs. J. Runyan, Mrs. D. Brown, Mrs. H. Perquet, Mrs. C. Hebeler. Dr. and Mrs. Donald Brown will host a pre-dance cocktail party for neighbors on Colony Circle the night of Canterbury's big formal dance.

LAST WEEK St. Fabian's Catholic Church bestowed Confirmation rites on a group of Canterbury boys and girls. They were: Tim Adams, Julie and Robert Botsford, Tom Carriere, Pat Ebner, Kevin Gasior and Tom Gasser. Others were Edward Givlin, Michael Haight, and Cynthia Haight, John Hazelroth, Paul Hebeler, and Charles and Nan Kalernaros.

REV. RICHARD MARKHAM

Death Claims Pastor

The Rev. Richard T. Markham, 52, who for eight years was pastor of the Farmington First Methodist Church, died March 18 in Henry Ford Hospital following open heart surgery.

Mr. Markham was pastor of the Farmington Church until June 1966 when he left to assume the pastorate of Trinity Methodist Church in Lapeer.

Private services were held March 20 and a memorial service will be conducted today (Sunday) in Trinity Methodist by Dr. Messolle R. DeWitt, district superintendent of the Detroit West District of the Methodist Church.

Burial was in Woodlawn Cemetery, Detroit.

SURVIVING are Mr. Markham's wife, Eleanor, and two children, Richard Jr., of Detroit, and JoAnn, of Farmington.

A mechanical engineer until he entered the ministry 20 years ago, Mr. Markham attended Lawrence Institute of Technology, Seminary and the Methodist Theological Seminary. Before coming to the Farmington church, he had served churches in Davis, Ill., Detroit and Algonac.

While in Farmington, the pastor was active in the Farmington Area YMCA sex education program, was president of the Farmington Exchange Club and president of the Oakland County Tuberculosis Society.

HE WAS chairman of numerous church boards, including the Detroit District Board of Pensions for the Methodist Church. He also served on the National Board of Evangelism for the church.

Memorial gifts may be sent to the Farmington First Methodist Church

Briar Hill NEWS

Fran Mann, 626-5946

On Thursday, March 14, Jack drove Jimmy, our grandson, and me to Toledo where we boarded a bus for a four day visit in Akron, O. - giving Jimmy's four great-grandparents a chance to spoil him.

Then, on the weekend, Jack drove down and we all came home Sunday evening. After Jimmy getting up at 6:15 a.m. and 7:15 a.m., I really don't think my parents were too unhappy to see us leave.

A few weeks ago, Diane Schumacher, of Ravenscroft, gave her senior piano recital at Michigan State. She is a member of Sigma Alpha Iota, a professional musical fraternity. Diane is now doing student teaching at Waterford and will graduate from State this summer. She is also engaged and plans on being married on August 17 so the next few months should be very busy ones for Diane.

THE BRIAR HILL Mystery Club found itself at Upland Hills on Saturday evening, March 16. Eighteen couples enjoyed an evening of a hayride, spaghetti dinner and square dancing and a good time was had by all.

Just a couple of Happy Birthdays this week - Richard Beinbas, of Old Bedford, on March 22 and Leslie Towne of Briarton on March 24.

IN THE BRIAR HILL Women's League, top team is the Dream Girls - members are Ann Stephan, Jo Wyman, Jean Denaro and Sue Hage. Top game is 225 belonging to Jean Denaro. Others bowlers have until around May 1 to take over the top places.

Congratulations again to Janice Young for winning a drama scholarship recently--this young lady has no end to her talents.

Kendallwood Komments

Emily Orr, GR. 4-7499

Spring is here - hurrahhhhh... time for kite flying, roller skating, bike riding and we find many folks indulging in the latest exercise called aerobics. This new exercise was developed by a U.S. Air Force doctor. There are at least four couples jogging a mile in the Kendallwood area.....Keep up the good work.

Speaking of weather, that snow storm on March 12 really caused much confusion in many homes of the boys and girls who were confirmed in St. Fabian's that evening. Many sponsors were caught in the storm and stand-ins were required but from all reports everything went well and at least 300 youngsters were confirmed by Archbishop John Dearden. Congratulations to all the boys and girls.

AND NOW congratulations are in order for many of the students in our Farmington area who participated in the Ninth Annual Oakland Art Education Association. Just to sight an example, Mrs. Chabut's sixth grade at Woodside School entered three large art works. There was a knight at least five feet tall made out of foil; then a mosaic, four feet by two feet; and a stitchery project at least 8 feet long and two feet wide. There were many others which were very well done. Again congratulations to all our kids in our area.

Parties galore on March 17, which was St. Patrick's Day. One we must report was a St. Patrick's Day Dance held Saturday, March 16 in the Pine Lake Country Club. Special touches which included an "Irish Charmer" cocktail, derbies for the men, green garters for the women and a special showing of "the overalls from Mrs. Murphy's Chowder". Program chairmen were Mr. and Mrs. James Tyrer, of Orchard Lake.

Traffic Toll Rises In '68

The State Safety Commission approved a recommendation of its operating committee for the appointment of a special group to develop a revision of the Michigan Motor Vehicle Code.

Expected to take several years, the program is aimed at bringing Michigan into conformity with the model Uniform Vehicle Code, or with a new code which reportedly is under consideration at the national level.
