Irish Airliner Drops Into Ocean, 61 Lost

FISHGUARD, Wales -- A large-scale search to recover the bodies of victims lost in the Sunday crash of an Irish airliner with 61 aboard is underway in the Irish Sea. All of the passengers and crew are presumed dead. The plane, bound from Cork to London, was reported spinning just before the crash. Weather was normal at the time of the crash, although a rainstorm swept into the area Sunday evening, hampering rescue operations.

Council. The resolution represented a compromise between a bitterly anti-Israeli draft and demands by the United States, Britain and other Western nations that Arab guerrilla operations also be condemned, if only by implication. PANAMA -- President Marco A. Robles, removed from office by the National Assembly of Panama, refused to give up his power until the nation's highest court considered the matter. Robles has the backing of the National Guard, the only effective military force in Panama. Max Delvalle, formerly the first vice president, was sworn in as president in one of the objections by Robles. The resulting political deadlock carries the risk of civil disorder or of a military seizure of power.

SAIGON -- The United States Marine outpost at the Khe Sanh has been under heavy bombardment. The Marines retaliated by directing waves of bombers and tons of artillery shells against enemy positions around the outpost. Casualties within the Khe Sanh were characterized by the U.S. command as light.

FUKUOKA, Japan -- Japan's southernmost island, Kyushu, was hit early Monday by a strong earthquake, which reportedly left the town of Ebino without telephone communication. The town, on the edge of a volcanic belt on the southern island, has been hit by a series of tremors since the first of the year.

HAVANA -- The Cuban government arrested 17 more businessmen in its drive to wipe out anti-Castro elements. Most of those detained were jeweled, accused of buying and selling gold illegally. The drive, begun nearly two weeks ago, has reportedly resulted in the nationalization of almost 50,000 small businesses.

LJUBJANA, Yugoslavia -- Eight mountaineers were buried in an avalanche in the Alps Sunday. Rescuers found four of the party dead and another seriously injured.

GOP District Conventions Set

Republicans in Michigan will take the second step toward nominating their candidate for president this week. They will hold county and district conventions Wednesday at 8 p.m. when they will pick delegates to attend the state convention. The state convention in May will pick delegates to the national convention and nominate presidential electors.

This moderate group is headed by John Cartwright. A conservative group will gather in the First Federal Savings and Loan auditorium in Pontiac. Although not recognized by the State Central Committee, the conservative group, headed by Arnold Jones and Christian Powell, boasts that it still retains the local official records and bank account and that it has not been challenged in court by the Cartwright group.

Speaker at the conservative convention will be State Sen. Robert Huber of Troy.

Mich. Bell Starts Book Distribution

Distribution of the new 1968 telephone directories begins in this area Tuesday, April 2, Michigan Bell Telephone Company said. Included in the distribution are 325,000 West and Downer directories which will go to subscribers in 42 local communities. It will take two weeks or more for the distribution to be completed.

The new format for emergency numbers on the inside front cover which features emblems associated with emergency has proved a success. Parents again are urged to fill in their respective telephone numbers opposite these emblems--such as a shield for the fire department, a star for sheriff and state police--and point out this page to their children to familiarize them with the symbolic emergency numbers.

Livonia Mall To Sponsor Art Exhibit

Artists and craftsmen from Michigan and Ontario will present an exhibit of painting, enamels, sculpture, hand-made jewelry, hand-painted china, decoupage, lapidary, ceramics and other crafts at the Livonia Mall, Seven Mile Rd. and Middlebelt, beginning April 4 through 13. Approximately 1,000 paintings will be shown on specially constructed display units in the enclosed mall. Artists will be on hand to demonstrate and show their handiwork in a great variety of materials and mediums. Also featured will be a group of portrait artists and caricaturists. The exhibit is sponsored by the Merchants Association of the Mall. It is one of the largest art exhibits ever held in Metropolitan Detroit. Livonia Mall is open evenings until 9 with the exception of Tuesdays and Wednesdays.
