

Northville Town Hall Lists 1968-9 Speakers

The 1968-69 Northville Town Hall series will star five personalities of national and international fame.

Bess Myerson, television star and former Miss America, will open the series Oct. 17 with a talk on "The Old and the New." Miss Myerson is the recipient of many significant citations and awards in the area of social responsibility.

She has been a member of the advisory board of the Eleanor Roosevelt Memorial Foundation created by Congress and has served at the U.S. Mission of the U.N. in the department of protocol.

THE QUESTION, "Is it all psychosomatic?" will be answered by Dr. Lester Coleman Nov. 21. Dr. Coleman is a leading New York City physician-lecturer and is currently attending surgeon at Manhattan Eye, Ear and Throat Hospital.

He must fear frankly—it must first be recognized, then ways must be sought to alleviate the condition, as with any problem, physical or mental," states Dr. Coleman.

He is author of "Freedom From Fear" and considers the psychosomatic aspects of medicine.

THE 1969 lectures will be launched Feb. 20 with John Peer Nugent's comments on the vast, tumultuous continent of Africa.

Since 1961, Nugent has travelled Africa continually and been involved in its wars, politics and intrigues.

Nugent, a former chief African correspondent for Newsweek magazine, is now a free lance writer with articles appearing in many leading periodicals and a book, "Call Africa 999," currently in print.

DR. KENNETH McFARLAND, an eloquent exponent of what is known as the "American System," will speak March 20, 1969 at "Selling America to the Americans."

Dr. McFarland declares that America is the land that "literally dumps the horn of plenty on the common man," and calls his philosophy of basic Americanism "progressive conservatism."

Dr. McFarland has crossed the nation many times, and tries to develop an appreciation of what it means to be an all-around American citizen.

CONCLUDING THE Northville Town Hall lecture series with "Elegance on a Budget" will be Mme. Genevieve Antoinette Dariau, from the costume of Nina Ricci.

Mme. Dariau will speak on April 17, and her lecture will cover the "do's and don'ts" of attire, the current and future fashion trends—all interspersed with anecdotes about her career and famous clients.

4 Elected By Huron Valley Girl Scouts

Special PRE-EASTER PERMANENT

The new young look of Spring is here! A short crop of curly Wind-tossed! Fancy free! Try a body permanent if your hair isn't naturally wavy.

Regular $15.00 with shampoo and set $7.50*

Regular $20.00 with shampoo and set $9.66*

Regular $25.00 with shampoo and set $11.88*

* NORMAL HAIR ONLY

Regular $20 FROSTING only 17.50

1259

959

759

You know that only the very finest leather gloves can claim machine-washability, so you recognize these as exceptional values. Butter-soft classics in favorite shortie, 4-button and 8-button lengths, black or white. 6 1/2 to 7 1/2. Hurry in for these!

Himelhoch's

• Detroit • Northland • Birmingham • Grosse Pointe • Westland

Women On The Go

MARGARET REID

She Makes A Home For A Foundation

Edith Reid and her husband, Gerald, live in the Western Wayne County headquarters of the Michigan Cancer Foundation.

Or, more properly, they have donated a room of their home on Lora Drive in Redford Township to storing piles and piles of supplies for the foundation.

Edith has headed the area chapter for 12 years and spends many hours every week to sort supplies, getting them to women's groups for sewing, and securing drivers for cancer patients.

She also devotes every Monday to staffing the Michigan Cancer Foundation office in Dearborn.

JUST NOW she's preparing for the foundation's annual Crusade that is coming up next month.

This is one crusade, Edith said, that doesn't require any financial contribution from those who participate.

The Michigan foundation is part of the United Foundation, so it gets its funds for operation from the contributions made to the UF drive each fall.

The April crusade, instead, is an opportunity for all residents of the area to especially those who have been diagnosed with the dreaded disease. This year the plan is to show, in local theaters, a film previously televised and depicting breast cancer surgery.

A physician will be on hand for the theater showings to explain the film and answer any questions the women may have, Edith said.

IT WAS the April crusade back in 1967 that first caught Edith's eye and into the work that has given her great satisfaction.

An active worker in Parent-Teacher Association matters for quite a few years, she received a telephone call one day from Russel Hibert, Redford Union School superintendent.

"I'm sending someone over to see you," he told Edith. "You'll find out what's about when he gets there."

The caller turned out to be a representative of the cancer foundation, who had been searching high and low for a crusade chairman that year. Edith took on that job, and before long was heading the whole Western Wayne County operation.

SHE PARTICIPATED in—and applauded—the local group's decision several years ago to break away from the American Cancer Foundation rather than conduct another fund drive against United Foundation policies.

"The groups that help with the sewing, and all the people who give their services agreed to stay with the UF," she said.

Besides the UF money, Edith added, there are funds available from memorial contributions, and the foundation conducts a Christmas Card sale that raises more dollars.

This is being used currently for a new program to send homemakers into homes where the mother is ill with cancer and there are small children.

Taking charge of the cancer pads Edith finds a never-ending job.

"It's good to have them right here in the house," she said. "I can just go in when I have a few minutes and get a lot done."

SHE GETS FILLER for pads in several widths and cuts them into the proper lengths, then bundles them into packages of 20. Women's groups in the area—and their membership includes something like 16,000 sewers—then take the packages of filler and cover each piece with clean, white cloth.

They bring the completed pads back to Edith, who checks them all for any stray pins that might have been left and packages each type for families of cancer patients to collect. They come to the home-headquarters to get the pads.

About 4,000 pads a month go through Edith Reid's hands.

She also keeps detailed lists of patients in the area who are in X-ray therapy and need to be driven to hospitals several times a week.

THE REIDS have lived in the township 31 years, and Edith began her PTA activities when their son, Gordon, now a father of two living in California, was in kindergarten.

At that time she joined the Roosevelt School Mothers' Club and before Gordon finished sixth grade she had served two years as its president. She also had three years as president of the Redford Union High School PTA, and two more as president of the Redford Township PTA Council.

She Makes A Home For A Foundation

EDITH REID

The Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers has honored her by making her a life member and presenting a distinguished service award.

EDITH REID also has been an active member of the Redford Township Musical Society, which raises funds for the Redford Civic Symphony. She was its first vice-president and second president, and a few years later served another term as president "when they couldn't get anyone else."

She also is a member of the Redford Township Garden Club and the Kenwood Women's Club.

The couple has a retarded daughter, Diane, who enjoys going along with her busy mother in many of her service projects.

The three of them have little trouble making a headquarters a home—and vice versa.

Beautiful Custom Drapes
don't have to cost a fortune!
Call us, 261-6226 and find out before you buy!
Free day or evening, no obligation shop-at-home service

Dennis Drapery Garden City
29236 FORD ROAD • RESIDENTIAL & COMMERCIAL
Just East of Middlebelt

SEE our large selection NOW at

Florida Honeymoon Follows Wedding

Newlywed Mr. and Mrs. Richard Keith Waara honeymooned in Florida after their marriage Feb. 27 in St. John Bosco Catholic Church, Redford Township.

The bride is the former Jacqueline Kraemer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ovid Joseph Kraemer, of Union Lake.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Oscar Waara, of Westmore Avenue, Livonia.

Father Shea Breau officiated at the ceremony.

THE BRIDE'S GOWN was orange and chantilly lace. The full skirt featured tiers of lace, and a tiered chapel train fell from the shoulders. Her shoulder veil was secured by a lace and seed pearl halo.

She wore white orchids and pink tea roses.

Mary Tabaddi, of Detroit, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Carol Clark, Helga Strach, Joy Hodges and Colleen Krumm, all of Detroit.

LARRY WAARA was best man for his brother, and guests were seated by William Waara, Ro-

beri Spicer, Gary Waldorf and Joseph Kraemer, brother of the bride.

Young Cindy and Kurt Clark served as flower girl and ring bearer.

The reception was held in the American Legion Hall, Farmington.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary Academy, in Monroe, and the bridegroom graduated from Bentley High School.

Father Shea Breau officiated at the ceremony.

THE BRIDE'S GOWN was orange and chantilly lace. The full skirt featured tiers of lace, and a tiered chapel train fell from the shoulders. Her shoulder veil was secured by a lace and seed pearl halo.

She wore white orchids and pink tea roses.

Mary Tabaddi, of Detroit, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Carol Clark, Helga Strach, Joy Hodges and Colleen Krumm, all of Detroit.

LARRY WAARA was best man for his brother, and guests were seated by William Waara, Ro-

beri Spicer, Gary Waldorf and Joseph Kraemer, brother of the bride.

Young Cindy and Kurt Clark served as flower girl and ring bearer.

The reception was held in the American Legion Hall, Farmington.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary Academy, in Monroe, and the bridegroom graduated from Bentley High School.

Father Shea Breau officiated at the ceremony.

THE BRIDE'S GOWN was orange and chantilly lace. The full skirt featured tiers of lace, and a tiered chapel train fell from the shoulders. Her shoulder veil was secured by a lace and seed pearl halo.

She wore white orchids and pink tea roses.

Mary Tabaddi, of Detroit, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Carol Clark, Helga Strach, Joy Hodges and Colleen Krumm, all of Detroit.

LARRY WAARA was best man for his brother, and guests were seated by William Waara, Ro-

beri Spicer, Gary Waldorf and Joseph Kraemer, brother of the bride.

Young Cindy and Kurt Clark served as flower girl and ring bearer.

The reception was held in the American Legion Hall, Farmington.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary Academy, in Monroe, and the bridegroom graduated from Bentley High School.

Father Shea Breau officiated at the ceremony.

THE BRIDE'S GOWN was orange and chantilly lace. The full skirt featured tiers of lace, and a tiered chapel train fell from the shoulders. Her shoulder veil was secured by a lace and seed pearl halo.

She wore white orchids and pink tea roses.

Mary Tabaddi, of Detroit, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Carol Clark, Helga Strach, Joy Hodges and Colleen Krumm, all of Detroit.

LARRY WAARA was best man for his brother, and guests were seated by William Waara, Ro-

beri Spicer, Gary Waldorf and Joseph Kraemer, brother of the bride.

Young Cindy and Kurt Clark served as flower girl and ring bearer.

The reception was held in the American Legion Hall, Farmington.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary Academy, in Monroe, and the bridegroom graduated from Bentley High School.

Father Shea Breau officiated at the ceremony.

THE BRIDE'S GOWN was orange and chantilly lace. The full skirt featured tiers of lace, and a tiered chapel train fell from the shoulders. Her shoulder veil was secured by a lace and seed pearl halo.

She wore white orchids and pink tea roses.

Mary Tabaddi, of Detroit, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Carol Clark, Helga Strach, Joy Hodges and Colleen Krumm, all of Detroit.

LARRY WAARA was best man for his brother, and guests were seated by William Waara, Ro-

beri Spicer, Gary Waldorf and Joseph Kraemer, brother of the bride.

Young Cindy and Kurt Clark served as flower girl and ring bearer.

The reception was held in the American Legion Hall, Farmington.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary Academy, in Monroe, and the bridegroom graduated from Bentley High School.

Father Shea Breau officiated at the ceremony.

THE BRIDE'S GOWN was orange and chantilly lace. The full skirt featured tiers of lace, and a tiered chapel train fell from the shoulders. Her shoulder veil was secured by a lace and seed pearl halo.

She wore white orchids and pink tea roses.

Mary Tabaddi, of Detroit, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Carol Clark, Helga Strach, Joy Hodges and Colleen Krumm, all of Detroit.

LARRY WAARA was best man for his brother, and guests were seated by William Waara, Ro-

beri Spicer, Gary Waldorf and Joseph Kraemer, brother of the bride.

Young Cindy and Kurt Clark served as flower girl and ring bearer.

The reception was held in the American Legion Hall, Farmington.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary Academy, in Monroe, and the bridegroom graduated from Bentley High School.

Father Shea Breau officiated at the ceremony.

THE BRIDE'S GOWN was orange and chantilly lace. The full skirt featured tiers of lace, and a tiered chapel train fell from the shoulders. Her shoulder veil was secured by a lace and seed pearl halo.

She wore white orchids and pink tea roses.

Mary Tabaddi, of Detroit, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Carol Clark, Helga Strach, Joy Hodges and Colleen Krumm, all of Detroit.

LARRY WAARA was best man for his brother, and guests were seated by William Waara, Ro-

beri Spicer, Gary Waldorf and Joseph Kraemer, brother of the bride.

Young Cindy and Kurt Clark served as flower girl and ring bearer.

The reception was held in the American Legion Hall, Farmington.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary Academy, in Monroe, and the bridegroom graduated from Bentley High School.

Father Shea Breau officiated at the ceremony.

THE BRIDE'S GOWN was orange and chantilly lace. The full skirt featured tiers of lace, and a tiered chapel train fell from the shoulders. Her shoulder veil was secured by a lace and seed pearl halo.

She wore white orchids and pink tea roses.

Mary Tabaddi, of Detroit, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Carol Clark, Helga Strach, Joy Hodges and Colleen Krumm, all of Detroit.

LARRY WAARA was best man for his brother, and guests were seated by William Waara, Ro-

beri Spicer, Gary Waldorf and Joseph Kraemer, brother of the bride.

Young Cindy and Kurt Clark served as flower girl and ring bearer.

The reception was held in the American Legion Hall, Farmington.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary Academy, in Monroe, and the bridegroom graduated from Bentley High School.

Father Shea Breau officiated at the ceremony.

THE BRIDE'S GOWN was orange and chantilly lace. The full skirt featured tiers of lace, and a tiered chapel train fell from the shoulders. Her shoulder veil was secured by a lace and seed pearl halo.

She wore white orchids and pink tea roses.

Mary Tabaddi, of Detroit, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Carol Clark, Helga Strach, Joy Hodges and Colleen Krumm, all of Detroit.

LARRY WAARA was best man for his brother, and guests were seated by William Waara, Ro-

beri Spicer, Gary Waldorf and Joseph Kraemer, brother of the bride.

Young Cindy and Kurt Clark served as flower girl and ring bearer.

The reception was held in the American Legion Hall, Farmington.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary Academy, in Monroe, and the bridegroom graduated from Bentley High School.

Father Shea Breau officiated at the ceremony.

THE BRIDE'S GOWN was orange and chantilly lace. The full skirt featured tiers of lace, and a tiered chapel train fell from the shoulders. Her shoulder veil was secured by a lace and seed pearl halo.

She wore white orchids and pink tea roses.

Mary Tabaddi, of Detroit, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Carol Clark, Helga Strach, Joy Hodges and Colleen Krumm, all of Detroit.

LARRY WAARA was best man for his brother, and guests were seated by William Waara, Ro-

beri Spicer, Gary Waldorf and Joseph Kraemer, brother of the bride.

Young Cindy and Kurt Clark served as flower girl and ring bearer.

The reception was held in the American Legion Hall, Farmington.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary Academy, in Monroe, and the bridegroom graduated from Bentley High School.

Father Shea Breau officiated at the ceremony.

THE BRIDE'S GOWN was orange and chantilly lace. The full skirt featured tiers of lace, and a tiered chapel train fell from the shoulders. Her shoulder veil was secured by a lace and seed pearl halo.

She wore white orchids and pink tea roses.

Mary Tabaddi, of Detroit, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Carol Clark, Helga Strach, Joy Hodges and Colleen Krumm, all of Detroit.

LARRY WAARA was best man for his brother, and guests were seated by William Waara, Ro-

beri Spicer, Gary Waldorf and Joseph Kraemer, brother of the bride.

Young Cindy and Kurt Clark served as flower girl and ring bearer.

The reception was held in the American Legion Hall, Farmington.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary Academy, in Monroe, and the bridegroom graduated from Bentley High School.

Father Shea Breau officiated at the ceremony.

THE BRIDE'S GOWN was orange and chantilly lace. The full skirt featured tiers of lace, and a tiered chapel train fell from the shoulders. Her shoulder veil was secured by a lace and seed pearl halo.

She wore white orchids and pink tea roses.

Mary Tabaddi, of Detroit, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Carol Clark, Helga Strach, Joy Hodges and Colleen Krumm, all of Detroit.

LARRY WAARA was best man for his brother, and guests were seated by William Waara, Ro-

beri Spicer, Gary Waldorf and Joseph Kraemer, brother of the bride.

Young Cindy and Kurt Clark served as flower girl and ring bearer.

The reception was held in the American Legion Hall, Farmington.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary Academy, in Monroe, and the bridegroom graduated from Bentley High School.

Father Shea Breau officiated at the ceremony.

THE BRIDE'S GOWN was orange and chantilly lace. The full skirt featured tiers of lace, and a tiered chapel train fell from the shoulders. Her shoulder veil was secured by a lace and seed pearl halo.

She wore white orchids and pink tea roses.

Mary Tabaddi, of Detroit, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Carol Clark, Helga Strach, Joy Hodges and Colleen Krumm, all of Detroit.

LARRY WAARA was best man for his brother, and guests were seated by William Waara, Ro-

beri Spicer, Gary Waldorf and Joseph Kraemer, brother of the bride.

Young Cindy and Kurt Clark served as flower girl and ring bearer.

The reception was held in the American Legion Hall, Farmington.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary Academy, in Monroe, and the bridegroom graduated from Bentley High School.

Father Shea Breau officiated at the ceremony.

THE BRIDE'S GOWN was orange and chantilly lace. The full skirt featured tiers of lace, and a tiered chapel train fell from the shoulders. Her shoulder veil was secured by a lace and seed pearl halo.

She wore white orchids and pink tea roses.

Mary Tabaddi, of Detroit, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Carol Clark, Helga Strach, Joy Hodges and Colleen Krumm, all of Detroit.

LARRY WAARA was best man for his brother, and guests were seated by William Waara, Ro-

beri Spicer, Gary Waldorf and Joseph Kraemer, brother of the bride.

Young Cindy and Kurt Clark served as flower girl and ring bearer.

The reception was held in the American Legion Hall, Farmington.

The