

Storm Delays Boys' Deadline

Last weekend's heavy snowstorm caused postponement of the final registration date of the North Farmington-West Bloomfield Little League until Saturday, March 30.

Boys who wish to try out for teams in the league may register between 9:30 a.m. and 4 p.m. Saturday at Bond School. Physical examinations will be given at the same time. Boys living north of 11 Mile Rd. are eligible to play in the league.

Gets All A's

Bruce C. Christ, 27539 Bramwell St., Farmington, has achieved a perfect scholastic record at Lehigh University and has been named to the school's dean's list.

FISH STORY -- Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tidewell, 33741 Bernadine Dr., Farmington, will have to tell the same fish stories when they return from their vacation in Pompano Beach, Fla. The sailfish each caught were almost identical, measuring to just under five and one-half feet.

Load Limits In Effect

Enforcement of the spring-time reduction for wheel and axle loads of vehicles using the highways under the jurisdiction of the Oakland County Road Commission began at 6 a.m. Wednesday, March 13.

Reduced normal weight limitations for all country roads excluding the all-weather routes are shown on the 1968 Truck Operators' Map recently published and distributed by the commission.

Truckers and individuals requesting more information or additional maps should contact the Weightmaster Division, Department of Permits and Special Uses, at the central commission office, 2420 Pontiac Lake Rd., Pontiac, telephone 338-4571, extensions 284-285.

Adult Ed To Include Drama

With auditoriums soon to be ready in Farmington's high schools, a drama course will be added to the adult education spring term.

Classes will begin April 22, with registration to be held in Farmington High School on April 8 and 9.

To be taught by Michael Rasmussen at North Farmington High, the drama course will cover such topics as stage script, play interpretation, groupings, movement, speech, timing and character creation. No previous acting experience is required.

Additional new courses in the spring term will be Karate, Spanish guitar and advanced bridge for the seasoned player.

Jim Martin, a third degree Black Belt, will teach a class beginning self defense for men and women. The American Karate Association's administrator for the Detroit area, Martin has worked in Korean Karate for nine years.

Class instruction available on Guitar and Drums.

Stock Seminar Slated

Whether to buy the Blue Chips or the Glamor will be discussed at an Investment Seminar to be held at 7:30 p.m. April 2 in the Farmington Masonic Temple, 23715 Farmington Rd. at Grand River.

The seminar will be conducted by Gabe Werba, of Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith, who will analyze some of the new concepts in investment.

The program will also cover the uses of leverage, the outlook for 1968, an analysis of some of the faster growth industries, with emphasis on the computer industry and a recommended approach for investing in that industry.

Open to the public, admission to the seminar is by reservation only. Reservations can be made by calling Merrill Lynch, 963-4670, ext. 304.

Club Plans Point Night

Friday, March 22 is the regular master point night for the Mayfair Club, but a special master point night will be held at 8 p.m. March 29 at 32905 Northwestern Hwy. at 14 Mile Rd.

Mayfair will hold its Open Pairs Tournament Friday, May 3. Reservations may be made in advance by calling MA 6-2109. This game will mark the Mayfair Club's fifth year.

Games are held weekly by the club on Thursday evenings in the Birmingham YMCA and on Friday and Sunday evenings at the address on Northwestern Hwy. Master point nights are the first Sunday, second Thursday and fourth Friday. The Sunday evening games begin at 6:30 p.m.

Hart Fete Planned

Mr. and Mrs. C. William Hungerford, 22331 Cass, Farmington, are among the coordinators for the 11th annual dinner the Oakland County Democratic Committee will give for Sen. Philip A. Hart Saturday, April 20, in Oakland University's Vandenberg Hall.

Tickets for the 7:30 p.m. buffet dinner are $15 per couple ($7.50 individual) and may be obtained at the committee headquarters, 1700 S. Telegraph, Pontiac, or by mail.

Sen. Hart will deliver an address following the dinner.

Dr. Smith To Discuss Finances

Farmington School Superintendent Roderick J. Smith will be guest speaker at a meeting of the Longacre PTA to be held at 7:30 p.m. March 28 in the school.

Smith will discuss the financial status of the Farmington School District in a five-point program, which will include:

- Failure of the November millage vote.
- Financial implications of the recent property reassessment.
- The Farmington tax base as it relates to education.
- The financial role of the state.
- What fiscal reform has and has not done for public school education in Michigan.

The public is invited to attend the meeting.
