Farmington AAUW Honors Members In Scholarships

A scholarship fund of $2,000 including name gifts for Mrs. Barbara Brown and Mrs. Patricia Dates, is being presented to the American Association of University Women by members of the Farmington branch.

Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Dates both are past members of the Farmington Board of Education and members of the local AAUW branch.

Money for the scholarship gifts was raised in the group's 1967 used book sale.

The program committee was announced last week at the Farmington general meeting by Mrs. R.C. Kittredge, local fellowships chairman.

Her committee included Mrs. Robert Benjamin, Mrs. Don Briggs, Mrs. James W. Halligan, Mrs. Gerald R. Heater and Mrs. Robert Simanek.

Besides the $500 name grants for Barbara Fisher Brown and Patricia Graham Dates, contributions of $500 each will go to the AAUW Margaret Elliot Tracy International Endowment and to the Ruth Edgar Shain International Endowment.

MRS. BROWN is a charter member and second president of the Farmington AAUW branch and served as state chairman of the Status of Women Division.

A graduate of the University of Michigan, she served two terms as secretary of the Farmington Board of Education, has been active in Girl Scouting and worked with the American Field Service, hosting a Japanese student in her home.

CHOICE OF TWO EXCELLENT LOCATIONS... Combining the best of town and country, Provincetown Homes offer a wide selection of generous lots on winding streets in both Troy and in the Northville area. In Troy, the major cultural centers of Cranbrook, Meadowbrook and Oakland University are only minutes away. Near Northville, charming village living is convenient to the Ann Arbor campus of the University of Michigan and all its athletic, cultural and research activities. Both locations are served by expressways and but a few miles from boating, golfing, tennis, fishing, hunting, skiing and camping. Churches, new schools, shopping centers and theaters are also close at hand.

LUXURY AND SPACE... Generous space for gracious living, convenience and privacy is reflected in every Provincetown Home. Tasteful architectural styling graces all of the 36 different Ranch, Cape Cod and Colonial plans. Inviting foyers open into large living rooms and dining rooms affording space for more formal entertaining. For informal get-togethers, paneled family rooms with natural fireplaces open through sliding glass doors to patio areas. Children will thrive with their own large rooms and space for active play both downstairs and in the backyard. Bright country kitchens, first floor laundries and abundant closet space will delight the most efficient homemaker. Do-it-yourselfers will find more than enough storage and working room in the large, finished two-car garages and full basements.

OPTIONAL LUXURY FEATURES... The base price of each Provincetown Home includes an 80' lot, paved streets and sidewalks, city water and sewers, a dishwasher, range, range hood and fan, disposer, full Fiberglass insulation, storm door, storm windows and screens.

Live these good years in the best home you can buy... and enjoy an excellent investment, as property values in these communities continue to increase.
