

Easter Seal Twins Visit Wishing Well

Crowley's Downtown play host for all of the Crowley Stores—Macomb, Westport and Livonia—when Easter Seal President Robert E. Winkel welcomed

Lisa and Lori Yauch, the 1968 National Easter Seal twins, on a ceremonial visit to Crowley's "Wishing Well"

For the last several years, the "Wishing Well", gay with spring blooms and set up on the main floor of Crowley's Downtown Store, has been a focal point at Easter time for visitors, who toss silver coins and copper pennies as contributions to the traditional Easter Seal Campaign.

And, this year was no exception when the twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Gail Yauch, of Southfield, made their appearance. Foster children for the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults, they represent all of the handicapped children in the United States. In addition, they are poster youngsters for the second year for the Detroit Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc., 17330 Schaefer.

BOTH GIRLS are victims of cerebral palsy resulting in spastic paraplegia. But, their future is bright. For, they are progressing well through program of active and passive exercise and attendance in the socialization class at the Society's Therapy Center.

This was the girls' second visit to Crowley's this spring. Earlier, with their mother, they had selected a wardrobe, the gift of Crowley's, for the National Easter Seal tour, which opened on March 5 when they met President Lyndon B. Johnson in Washington and gave him the first Easter Seal to kick-off the 1968 campaign.

GI Honored For Heroic Action

Risking his life to protect his comrades, the young machine gunner steadfastly held his ground under the enemy assault.

For his heroism, Army S/4 Brian E. Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Bell, 33023 Rayburn, Livonia, received the Bronze Star Medal in recent ceremonies near Pleiku, Vietnam.

SERVING AS AN assistant machine gunner with his company of the 4th Infantry Division, Spec. Bell was taking part in a combat assault on Viet Cong fortifications near Dak To. When his gunner was wounded, he took over the machine gun and lay down an intense volume of fire on the enemy bunkers, providing maximum cover for his advancing comrades.

Due to his accurate and effective fire, Spec. Bell became the target for the Viet Cong's concentrated rocket and small arms fire.

The citation reads in part:

Feet Keep Eggs Warm - Emperor penguins stand for weeks during the long Antarctic night with the egg between their feet to keep it warm, the parents sharing the task between them.

Spec. Bell exhibited great courage and determination throughout the engagement and was instrumental to the success of the mission.
