

Trinity EBU Sets Services

The Rev. Robert E. Horton, pastor, and the Rev. Theodore W. Hemper, assistant pastor, of Trinity Evangelical United Brethren Church, 19750 West McNichols, announce Holy Week Services.

Worship services will be held at 9 and 11:15 a.m. Palm Sunday, April 7, with the scriptural topic "Praying-Confidently." At 5:30 p.m., that evening the

39 Young People To Join Ward Church

Palm Sunday has a great deal of religious significance throughout the Christian world, and will have a special meaning to 39 young people of Ward Memorial Presbyterian Church, Livonia chapel.

Dr. Bartlett L. Hess, minister of the congregation, said the new members will be received during the 11:30 a.m. worship service.

They have completed an intensive three-month course of study of the Westminster Confession, Catechism and the Doctrines of the Church. Teachers of the course were Edward Elwell, director of Christian Education and Erik Craig, youth director.

Two Guest Ministers To Preach

Special Easter services to be held in First Baptist Church of Farmington will begin with a Good Friday service from 1 to 2:15 p.m.

Dr. Harry Love, general director of the Conservative Baptist Association of Michigan, will be the special speaker for this occasion.

Easter Sunday, April 14, will begin with a Sunrise Service at 6 a.m., with Paul MacMillan bringing the message. The Rev. Walter Ballagh, pastor, will speak at the Easter Morning Worship Service at 11 a.m.

To complete the day, the Rev. Oscar Cloninger, affiliated with the Missionary Intermall of Farmington, will bring the message at the Easter Evening Service at 7 p.m.

Special music will be a part of each service. First Baptist Church of Farmington is located at the junction of Farmington Road and Shilawassee Avenue.

"Jesus Christ is Risen Today, Alleluia!"
Voices sing in praise of the glory and wonder of Easter. May every blessing be bestowed on you during this holy season.
