Our Success Depends On Your Satisfaction

At Home In Old Homestead

By IRENE BARTY, 474-8463

Many Ellen and Don Green-bury flew to Tucson, Ariz., the weekend of March 17 for a visit with Don's parents. While Don attended a business meeting, Mary Ellen took an interesting side trip to "Old Tucson" where she saw the sets, which are used during the filming of the T.V. series, "High Chaparral."

The return flight proved to be a bit more than bargained for, and after much circling over Metro, with planes still not being allowed to land, they were forced to return to Chicago to spend what remained of the night. An early a.m. flight brought them again to Detroit where finally, after more delay, they were brought down safely.

RECUPERATING from a broken arm is Dick Brown, son of Shirley and Doug Brown. Dick, who is quite an athlete, was practicing gymnastics when the mishap occurred. With baseball just around the corner, too!

Mary Checketts had the misfortune to break her arm when she tripped on a rug while on her way to a class at Wayne State. Hope it's just coincidence, but Mary's neighbor Audrey Brunt, has also been nursing a broken arm suffered when she fell while ice-skating. They say things come in threes, so neighbors take care.

Helen and Joseph Conrad entertained 38 persons in their home Saturday evening, March 23. The occasion was to celebrate the winning of a contest by "Red" Holman Pontiac Agency. Those present were salesmen and their wives, Joe had the foresight to bring home the company "jeep" with which he kept their road and drive at least partly free of the gigantic snow drifts we were all battling that day.

ON THAT SAME snowy week-end, Martin Bowman journeyed to Cincinnati, O., with members of his bowling team to participate in the A.B.C. Bowling Tournament. Their team bowled on Saturday and stayed over until Monday when they took part in the singles and doubles matches. Though I couldn't drag any statistics from Martin, he did admit they had a good time trying.

Rose and Ron Barr recently returned from a very pleasant trip to Jamaica. The first week of their stay was spent with friends, sightseeing and relaxing. They particularly enjoyed Kingston and Runaway Bay which is located on the North Shore.

NFH Parents To Discuss Ed Changes

With almost every department at North Farmington High School having at least one curriculum addition next fall, the North Farmington Parents' Association meeting at 8 p.m., April 9 will feature a discussion of curriculum innovations. NFH Principal Clayton Graham will explain various topics, including the new equipment-sharing program with the Orchard Ridge campus of Oakland Community College, the Coop program and additions to the English curriculum.
