Federal Opens New Farmington Branch

The newest addition to the Federal Dept. Stores chain will officially open Thursday at 10 a.m. when the ribbon is cut for the 27th Federal store in the Detroit area and the chain's 55th in Ohio, Michigan, and New York.

Located in the heart of thriving Farmington, the new store is located in the downtown Farmington Shopping Center at Farmington Road and Grand River.

Civic and government leaders from the City of Farmington, Wayne County and adjoining communities will join in the colorful ribbon snipping ceremonies.

The new store, which has 70,000 square feet on one floor, is of colonial design with modern interior decor featuring soft pastel colors, year round air conditioning, and the latest innovations in modern, self-selection display units.

Parking facilities are available for more than 900 cars.

THE NEW FEDERAL store will be the largest single retail unit in the City of Farmington and will double the size of the shopping center which occupies 14 acres.

Developer and contractor for the new facility is A. Alfred Taubman of Taubman Co., in Oak Park. The original negotiations and planning were handled by Don Jones of O.G. Sanderson. Elmo Politt will manage the new unit and Richard Gromman is the assistant store manager. The greater part of Politt's staff, which numbers 100, are residents of the Farmington area.

The land upon which the new store is built has a history which traces back into the 19th century. Grove Street, which runs alongside the store, was once a country lane, bordered by a small woods of maple trees.

Dr. Joseph Moore lived in a home next to the woods until his death in 1909. His son, Harry Moore, one-time Farmington City Clerk was born and grew up in the home.

Adjacent to the Moore property was the land owned by the grandfather of Carl Goers, of 2720 Brookside, and the Clyde Chamberlain family.

In 1920, Dr. Moore's widow sold the property to Amos Otis, who remodeled the home and operated an automobile dealership on the site. His son, Henry, of 33614 Hillcrest Drive, opened a service station on the location which was in business for 33 years.

To Attend Meet

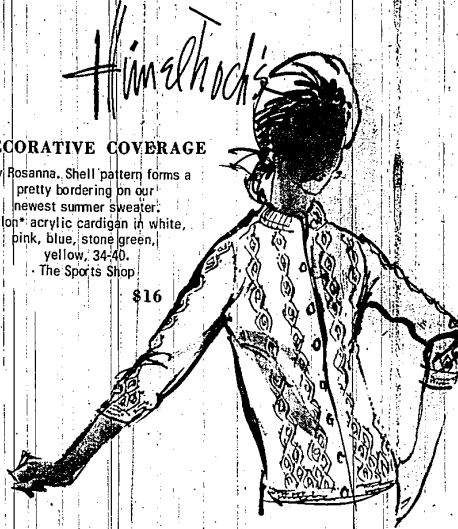

Breta L. Evans, English teacher at Dumek Junior High School, will participate in the program to be held in conjunction with the annual conference of the Michigan Council of Teachers of English to be held April 24-26 in Boyne Mountain Lodge, Boyne Falls.
