

Easter Week SERVICES

Area Churches Plan Varied Good Friday Services

A prayer vigil, a family worship service and several cooperative community services will mark observance of Good Friday and Maundy Thursday in this area.

THE NEWBURG Methodist Church will hold an interfaith prayer vigil in the church sanctuary on Good Friday, April 12, beginning at 4 p.m. and continuing through Easter morning at 6 a.m.

Livonia churches have been invited to share the 38-hour vigil hosted by the Newburg Church.

The Prayer Vigil is being held to give everyone an opportunity to pray for peace, brotherhood, better race relations, human rights, the jobless, the poor, the ill and shut-in, our men and women in the armed services and the personal concerns facing each of us today.

Materials for devotions and prayer aids will be provided for use as needed.

IN ADDITION to its 38-hour interfaith prayer vigil the Newburg Methodist Church will observe a Maundy Thursday holy communion service on April 11 at 7:30.

The church's youth preparatory membership classes will share as a group in this service.

Say 'The Pill' May Prevent Type Cancer

The birth control pill may well be a preventative for cancer of the endometrium, or lining of the womb, suggests Dr. Robert W. Kistner of Harvard Medical School.

He treated 66 women who had hyperplasia or excessive growth of the endometrium, or carcinoma in situ, with estrogen-progestin hormone compounds. In every case the processes were corrected and no invasive cancer did not develop.

The three crosses, Rejection, Repentance and Redemption will be discussed by the pastors of the three churches.

ANOTHER COMBINED Good Friday service will follow a tradition of many years at the Clarenceville Methodist Church, Rice Memorial Methodist Church, the Southfield Community Church and the Evangelical Covenant Church units in worship Friday, April 12 between 12:30 p.m. and 2:30 p.m.

Services will be held in the Evangelical Covenant Church at Eight Mile and Telegraph roads.
