

Death Toll Mounts In Indiana Gunpowder Blast

RICHMOND, Ind. — The count stood at 43 dead and a number of persons injured or missing Monday as authorities gingerly examined the charred rubble of the basement of the U.S. Metal Arms Co. sporting goods store. An explosion emanated from the basement Saturday night and destroyed nearly two city blocks of the downtown section of the city. State Police said that the basement contained a stock of gunpowder that was being held for sale to hunters and skeet shooters. In regard to the search for those killed in the blast, authorities commented, "We've got a long way to go."

NEW ORLEANS -- Saturday, H. Rap Brown, chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee succeeding Stokely Carmichael, to that post last year, was whisked to somewhere in Virginia for extradition to Maryland, the U.S. Marshall's office in New Orleans reported. Brown, who had been in the city on charges of violating travel restrictions imposed by a federal court, was moved sometime Saturday. The secret move was in keeping with federal regulations regarding movement of federal prisoners. Brown is facing charges of inciting to riot and to commit arson in Maryland.

TUSKEGEE, Ala. — It took the Alabama National Guard Saturday to free 32 prominent Tuskegee Institute trustees who had been locked in a campus guest house and held hostage by angry Negro students for nearly two hours.

About 200 national guardsmen and 10 state troopers arrived on the campus but found it quiet. The students had already released their captives, who included retired Gen. Lucius Clay and Rep. Frances Bolton (R.-O.). Clay said, "This wasn't connected with the murder of Dr. King but was simply an uprising of students who wanted to take over the campus." The university was founded by Booker T. Washington.

LOUISVILLE, Colo. — Mayor Frank Rizzoli slipped a 50-foot-long length of spaghetti to open a new Colorado highway recently rather than the traditional ribbon used on these occasions. The strand of spaghetti was 10 inches wide. Many of Louisville's residents are of Italian descent.

ALBANY, N.Y. — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller appealed to the New York State Legislature Sunday to enact a wide variety of social legislation swiftly as a tribute to the memory of the slain civil rights leader, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

"We cannot honor him merely by our tears. We must honor him—and the principles for which he died—by our actions," the governor said.

PALM BEACH, Fla. — A hotel bus boy, bleeding from two bullet wounds, plunged to his death early Sunday after he was shot twice in the side near the heart while attempting to climb into the bedroom where a former New York policeman and his wealthy, ex-showgirl wife were sleeping, police reported.

Police identified the dead man as John Prior, 23, of Brighton, Mass. Police said that the man was shot in the head as he entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Moran. Mrs. Moran was the fifth wife of the late Horace Dodge II of the family who made a fortune in the automobile industry.

Man shot Prior as he was discovered climbing through the upstairs bedroom window.

CINCINNATI — Nearly 100 policemen converged on a discount department store being burglarized Sunday, and arrested three men, but before seizing a gun that one of them

Louis Wren, 24, of Cincinnati, was arrested after a three-hour gun battle on two charges of shooting to kill a police officer and one charge of burglary. Jack Williams, 24, and Noah Cade, 20, of Cincinnati, were apprehended as they tried to flee the scene of the incident and were charged with burglary.
