

TO SING CONCERT — These young people are known as The Heralders, a musical group from the Grand Rapids School of the Bible and Music. They'll appear at the Covenant Community Church in Redford Township April 21.

Concert Planned At Covenant

The Heralders, musical ambassadors from the Grand Rapids School of the Bible and Music, will appear in concert at the Covenant Community Church, Redford Township, on Sunday, April 21 at 11 a.m. The ten-piece mixed ensemble will present a program of sacred music including anthems, hymn arrangements, gospel songs and spirituals. Special selections are performed by soloists, instrumentalists, quartets and trios will also be included in the service. An interesting aspect of the group's presentation is that they perform their entire program without direction. The Grand Rapids School of the Bible and Music offers young people technical training in the Bible and describes itself as "an institute of Bible technology." The public is invited to attend the concert.

Barbeque Topic Of Welcome Wagon Meeting

"Barbeque and Outdoor Cooking" is the theme of the program to be offered at the next monthly meeting of the Welcome Wagon Club of Livonia. The meeting will be held at the Consumers Power Co. offices on Farmington Road, on Tuesday, April 9, at 7:30 p.m. Reservations are necessary and may be made by calling Mrs. Ann Kietl at 421-3975. The club announced its recent charity of Albert's Livonia Mall spring fashion show and card party netted approximately $200 for the Children's Leukemia Foundation at Michigan, for whom it was held.

New YW Head

Mrs. Francis A. Dillon, of Detroit, is the 1968 president of the YWCA of Metropolitan Detroit. She was named recently by Executive Director Dorothy B. Mignault to head a seven-member board of directors.

AIMING FOR NEW BUILDING — Leaders of the Trinity Assembly of God in Farmington turned the first shovel of earth Sunday as ground was broken for a new building. From left are D. Mobat and R. Milligan, board members; the Rev. E. Cooley, Assembly of God district superintendent; the Rev. A. Worthley, assistant pastor; T. Mason, board member and the Rev. John Winn, pastor.

Farmington Church Plans New Building

Ground breaking ceremonies were held April 7, at 12:30 p.m. for the new Trinity Assembly of God Church to be located on Shilwaukee Ave., one block east of Middlebelt, Farmington. Guest speaker in the morning worship service was The Rev. E.D. Cooley, superintendent of the Michigan Council of The Assemblies of God, who also led in the ground breaking ceremony. Plans have been approved and the contractor has been selected for the construction of the building, which is scheduled to begin by May 1. Kenneth Terry and Raymond Ethemou, of Detroit, are the architects; and Harry Shirley is the contractor.
