

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM C. BROOKS

Senior Brooks Mark 50 Years Of Marriage

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Brooks, residents of Redford Township since 1950, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with a reception in Mt. Hope Congregational Church, Livonia.

Hosting the event were their two sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Brooks and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth G. Brooks.

About 150 friends and relatives were on hand.

Bill Brooks and Lula DeGroat were married March 20, 1918, in the village of Dorchester in Ontario. Two years later they bundled up their young son and took the train to the Detroit area.

They lived for a time in Ecorse, and Brooks was employed with the Kull and Bullen Beef Co., the Taysee Bread Co. and the Corey Brothers Market before establishing Brooks' Meat Market on Livernois near Buena Vista, in Detroit.

His sons later joined him in the business, and now have taken over the market, while their father, semi-retired, works two days a week there.

Mrs. Brooks is an active member of the Pilgrim Circle of Kings Daughters and Sons, and both husband and wife are members of the Senior Citizens of Redford Township. The Brooks have four grandsons and four granddaughters.

The proclamation was made last month to honor the sorority's Diamond Jubilee "and in recognition of the outstanding achievements of this group in helping to control crime through its work to prevent juvenile delinquency."

The official's proclamation states further: "Alpha Xi Delta's national and local philanthropic programs are an excellent example for those groups and individuals concerned about preventing juvenile delinquency."

ON THE NATIONAL level,

Alpha Xi Delta places four college members to work with young people at Howell House in Chicago, headquarters for the Neighborhood Service Organization.
