

Kite Flying Brings Out The Boy In A Man

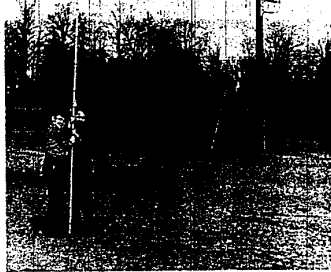

UP IT GOES — Nine-year-old Farmington Township youngster, Karen Grose, is just starting her kite on its journey into the high, blue sky.

CONSTRUCTION PROBLEMS — Grandfathers are always willing to lend a hand with the knotty problem of putting together a kite. Here Walter Lange helps his three-year-old grandson Westley Jones of Westmoreland with the important first step.

Charge Driver In Auto Crash

A 33-year-old Southfield woman and her 13-year-old son were in satisfactory condition at Botsford General Hospital Thursday after suffering injuries in a Farmington Township accident Monday, April 15. A car driven by Mrs. Gail Morgan of Southfield, in which her son, Mark, was a passenger, was struck at the intersection of Middlebelt and 12 Mile Rds. by a vehicle driven by Eli Friedman, 44, of 32245 Olde Franklin Dr., Farmington. Police ticketed Friedman on a charge of running a red light. He was proceeding north on Middlebelt and Mrs. Morgan was driving west on 12 Mile at the time of the collision.

A REFINEMENT — The traditional type of kite holds no secrets for Keith Whetter and Ricky Frey. The duo flies a 12-foot-long Fish Kite at the Bond School.
