Becky Esper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rev. Esper received the following telegram: "Selected by Ford Motor Company Fund Scholarship Board as one of 70 young men and women to receive a 1968 four-year scholarship. The Scholarship Program Director will send further details soon. May you plan to enroll in any approved college or university in the continental United States. My heartfelt congratulations and best wishes for a successful future. Benson Ford, president, Ford Motor Company."

There were 1,500 applications for the scholarship contest, with the possibility of only 70 winners. Becky's choice, at this time, is the University of Michigan. The Espers reside at 22500 Violet. The Thomas Mahoney family, of 27515 Lilac, had guests from Killarney, Ont., for five days recently.
