At Home In Old Homestead

By IRENE BARTH, 474-8463

Phil and Al Borst drove to Grand Rapids on Friday, April 4, to celebrate Phil's mother's birthday. From there Phil went on to Mt. Pleasant to attend "Mom's Week-end" planned by Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority at Central Michigan University. Marilyn, the Borsts' daughter is President of the Central chapter.

The girls had numerous activities planned which included bowling, shopping and just getting acquainted. After a tasty spaghetti dinner prepared by the girls, the Moms were treated to a glimpse of Saturday night college life at a favorite campus spot called "The Bird."

DON'T FORGET the A.F.S. "Evening Gala" on Saturday, April 27. Call me if you wish further details.

Rosemary Richardson journeyed to Three Rivers with her three children for a week-end visit with her parents and to see her grandmother, who has been ill.

Leon and Tom Moore and children spent Easter weekend at the home of Tom's Mother in Muskegon.

Visiting the past week with Betty and Jack Gazvoda from the Los Angeles area was Jack's aunt, Ann Tombaugh. Recent houseguests also were niece and nephew Dawn and Ross DePenciler, of Seaside, N.Y. Frankie Oddo, son of Ann and Charles Oddo, reported for duty with the Seabees and is now receiving his basic training in Gulfport, Miss.

Sunday night bowlers are reminded to circle May 11 on their calendars. This is the night on which the banquet will be held.

GLORIA BABINGTON, our subscription social chairman, reports a pot-luck supper is in the planning stages so watch our column for more information soon.

The Babingtons' daughter, Beth, entertained three of her friends, Karen Antczak, Lindsey Lamphar and Kathy Scott, at dinner to celebrate her 10th birthday on Tuesday, April 16. Fred Bulman has reached that pinnacle in his life. He recently celebrated his 40th birthday. Grace Bulman has just returned from Inglewood, Calif., where she enjoyed a week's stay with her father.

An opportunity for your children to have a great time and aid a good cause will be offered when the Farmington Association for Handicapped Children sponsors a Fun Fair in East Junior High. The date to remember is Saturday, April 27, the time, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. There will be games, refreshments and hand-made articles for sale.

Among the artists showing paintings at the Farmington Artists Spring Exhibit will be two of our residents, Kay Steele and Carol Cotter. The exhibit will be held this year in The Masonic Temple on April 25 and 27, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and on April 28, from noon to 6 p.m. "Art on a Budget" will provide an opportunity to select original paintings priced from $1 to $15.

There is an urgent need for donors of type O, RH negative blood. Please call 474-7095 if you qualify.

April Showers bring May flowers but this shower brought an array of gifts for it was a bridal shower in honor of Nancy Sandbothe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Sandbothe, of Peppermill. Hostess was Mrs. Jack McMinn and at least 20 guests were present. The wedding will take place on Friday, April 26, in St. Fabian's. The groom to be is Gregory Rourke, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Rourke.

CONGRATULATIONS are in order for Lynn Cairns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Cairns, of Bayberry. Lynn is on the gymnastics team at Dunkel and took a first in the State Finals at Saginaw on the balancing beam.

St. Fabian's fifth grade had a science fair and many youngsters entered and put forth many efforts in their projects. Some of the winners were Diane Rachilla, Vincent McClintock, Jeffrey Roberts, Michael Strickland and Julie Shepard. Eastertime is also vacation time. Sandy Kaweck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Kaweck, of New Castle, joined to Florida last week with her roommate Trish Meyers. The girls are guests of Trish's grandparents at Treasure Island, Fla. Both of the girls are attending college at Central.
