

Silver Star Awarded

A "little ding" was suffered by a Westland Marine in South Vietnam who was honored with the Silver Star and the Vietnamese Cross for Gallantry.

Receiving the dual honor was Cpl. Ernest Hayden, who will be 21 years old next month. The Marine is the son of Mrs. Nancy Hayden, of 34442 Fountain Blvd., Westland.

Mrs. Hayden said that her son wrote her that he received the "little ding" in action. "But they don't give Silver Stars, just for getting a little ding," she said.

Cpl. Hayden suffered the wound while serving as a mortar for the 1st Marine Air-Wing and has been assigned near Hue, where some of the most fierce battles in the past several months have been staged.

Hayden, who enlisted in the Marines three years ago, has been in Vietnam since September. He plans to be home in early September, Mrs. Hayden said.

Blaze Damages Nursery

Fire swept the office of a Westland nursery early Sunday morning, destroying most of the records of new landscaping orders.

Damaged by the blaze was the Lambrecht Nursery Farms, 1024 Merriman Rd. at Avondale.

The owner, Harry Lambrecht, asked The Observer to issue his public appeal to persons who have business pending with him to phone him.

"Most of my orders were destroyed and I don't know who's got what coming," he said. An estimated $10,000 in orders were burned, and he will rewrite them when they are sent to him at P.A. 2-7900.

The fire caused several thousands of dollars in damage to the office. It was caused by either a short in a telephone box under his desk or the wiring in a night light a few feet away, Lambrecht said.

The damage was discovered Sunday morning when the nursery was opened for business.

Guild Elects Officers

New officers have been elected by the Garden City Osteopathic Hospital Guild.

Leading the group for the 1968-69 year will be Mrs. Dominic Pallata of Garden City, president; Mrs. Roy West of Livonia, vice president; Mrs. Gary Cooper of Garden City, secretary; Mrs. Ruth McBride of Dearborn Heights, treasurer; and Mrs. Jerry Skalsky, of Inkster, historian.

The officers will assume their duties at the guild's May 15 installation dinner.

Volunteer members in the guild are also planning their annual strawberry festival in June. Persons interested in taking part in the event may call Mrs. Marge Goodall at 278-2489.

Bill Of Rights Posted

A short course in civics and how criminal proceedings are handled has been recently posted outside the doors of the Westland Municipal Court by Judge Thomas G. Smith.

Entitled "Your Bill of Rights When Appearing before the Municipal Court of Westland," the two-page outline of the rights of defendants was drafted by Judge Smith, elected last November along with Michael W. Bradley, both unopposed in the November election.
