Ever get that feeling where you think things can't get any worse? It has to get better and it doesn't! From time to time, it does seem to happen to all of us, doesn't it? Like a vice, pressing in from all sides, and are you "man enough to take the pressures?" Usually, as amazing as it seems, you are and you do.

Doesn't seem possible at the time but to and behold, your strength holds out and you emerge a greater individual. The thing to remember is every human, man or woman, has great strength when the need arises and in times of stress. Hope I remember my own words of wisdom during the next few days.

TO CHANGE the subject a bit, a man who seems to have the admiration of the young and the not-too-young, is Greg Frost, ninth grade science teacher at East Junior High School. Frost and 10 young men gathered last Friday evening, and come to camp in Wilderness State Park, boat to the Mackinac Island and then island-hike. This was all under the auspices of the Youth Ventures, Inc.

Don't know how many of you are familiar with the project, I must admit it was all very new to me and still is a little vague. But this, I did find out. It is not a school-sponsored project and is a non-profit organization designed to provide youth with programs in the out-of-doors that are both rugged and adventurous.

And isn't it a kind of tribute to a man, who will devote his time, after pay hours, to have with youth some of the out-door fun that some of us parents don't have time to do or dislike doing. A group of young men, all sharing common interests, who may someday grow up to love our out-doors enough to be conservationists, save our trees, our forests and maybe unpollute our polluted waters.

The young men who will remember their adventures of the past week-end are Fred Zakor, Michael Smith, Jack Baker, Joe Teeples, Scott Stinet, John Sharburo, Tom Tavashish, Greg Muerkaule, Jim Christinas and Bill Chudy and of course our other young man, Greg Frost.

BRIDE-TO-BE Vayle Lorton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lorton, of 12 Mile Rd., was honored with a personal shower in the home of Mrs. Ralph Downey, on Farmington Rd. The "I DO's" will be exchanged on May 25, by Vayle and Bill Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Herman, of Club House Lane, Farmington, and Mr. and Mrs. Andy Anderson, of Lansing, have returned from Palm Springs, Calif., where they attended the annual convention of the National Federation of Advertising Agencies, Herman represented Smith and Winchester Advertising Company of Detroit.

You'll want to get your Sunshine Cards out and send one to Mary Whiteford of Friar Circle. She is recuperating at home after a stay in the hospital.

Dr. and Mrs. Albert Rosten, formerly of Westbrook Subdivision, now residents of Coventry Lake Subdivision in Farmington, are looking rested and tanned from their recent trip to the Bahamas and Miami. Dr. Rosten, by the way, was recuperating from recent surgery and the trip did wonders for him.

In Miami, the Rostens visited with friends, Dr. and Mrs. Mel Platt and Dr. and Mrs. Jack Mishkin. It was great fun according to the Rostens, but Dr. Rosten couldn't wait to get back to work and back to work he is! And, might we add, happy about it.

MISS PAM TROMBLEY, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Trombley, of Lee Lane Ave. and Rodney Cooper, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Cooper, Sr., of San Leandro, Calif., exchanged vows on April 19 at a candlelight ceremony in the First Presbyterian Church on Farmington Rd. Attending the bride as Maid-of-honor was Barbara Trombley, sister of the bride, and attending the groom was Herbert Roberts, as best man.

Fun Fair

East Junior High School's gymnasium will be turned into a carnival from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. May 11 when the school holds its annual Fun Fair.

There will be events to interest all ages. For very small children, simple games will offer every player a prize as a reward. Latest developments in the game world will challenge the more mature.
