At Home In Old Homestead

By IRENE BARTH
David Kull, son of Dorothy and Dave Kull, was a recent graduate of the University of Detroit Law School. David graduated at the top of his class of 75 and was one of six persons presented with doctor of law degrees, cum laude.

Calling all pals of the "Bucket Brigadier!" Put away those mops and brooms and relax for awhile at the annual ladies brunch. The place will be Antezak's, on June 3, at 10 a.m. I can't think of a more pleasant way to meet your new neighbors than at this pool-side affair.

AT THE ANNUAL dinner meeting of The Farmington Historical Society, Mary Checketts was elected president of the organization for the current year. The society is dedicated to the preservation of Farmington historical sites. Mary also will act as co-chairman of the publicity committee for the Farmington Founders Festival which is scheduled for July 25-27.

On Sunday afternoon, May 19, Mary and John Phenev hosted an open house for a number of friends and neighbors. Though for no "special" occasion, the party was indeed a festive affair. Mary and John's way of saying thanks to all who were "so thoughtful" while John was recently recuperating from surgery.

Paula Gruenwald, daughter of Rose and Art Gruenwald, was confirmed last Sunday in Grace Lutheran Church. After the services her parents entertained some 30 guests at a buffet dinner in her honor. Sunday, May 26, she will take her first communion.

Velma Kaufman who fell and broke her hip recently is now at home recuperating. She will have to take things easy for some time and will be looking forward to visits from her friends and neighbors.

MEMBERS AND guests of the Bolshoi Garden Club journeyed by bus to the Tulip Festival in Holland on the opening day of the festivities. Particularly enjoyable were the Klomp dancers, who performed several Dutch folk dances, the flower show, and parade of bands and colorful floats. The traditional street scrubbing ceremony provided some hilarious moments. The day ended with a trip to the tulip gardens and a most tasty dinner at VanRaaites Restaurant in Zeeland. Those from Old Homestead who attended were Yvonne Craig, June Hukala, Phil Borst, Annie Mullen, Julie Craig, Pat Morgan and myself.

Dorothy and Frank Furling recently returned from almost two months of "seeing America first" traveling some 10,000 miles.

'How To' Course

Attacking the problem of "How To Study in College," at what they term "gut level," Purdue University professors will bring their course to Farmington during the month of June. Dates of the intensive study class are June 24, 25 and 26 from 7 to 10 p.m. in the O.E. Dunkel Junior High School. Registrations must be made by mail. The $15 fee check should be made out to the Farmington Public Schools and sent to Dr. Jack Cleveland, 32500 Shawansee Rd. before June 14. Subjects covered by the course include, how to listen to lectures more attentively, how to detect and get rid of distractions, how to improve note-taking ability and the study of notes, what is expected of a college theme graded "A" or "B", and a thorough analysis of the entire test-taking process.
