

Handy Named Top State Teacher

Roger Handy, Redford Union special education teacher, was named Michigan's "outstanding young educator" Thursday in East Lansing.

Handy, who is also chairman of the Parks and Recreation Commission, won the Redford Jaycee outstanding young educator (OYE) award last fall, qualifying him for competition with 17 others for the state title.

The announcement came at the Jaycee OYE "congress" held in the MSU Union ballroom. The Handys were posted Tuesday that "it would be a good idea to be present" at the banquet. Other than that, they had no inkling that Roger had won.

"The suspense was terrible," Roger's wife, Jean, said. "They started off with words 'A 31-year-old teacher... and I was so excited I couldn't remember how old Roger was.'"

A CONTINGENT of 15 Redford Jaycees were among the 200 at the dinner which featured Brutto Alonso, president of the National Education Association, as guest speaker. His topic was "Today's Teacher."

Roger was presented with a plaque and $200 U.S. savings bond by Robert Padgett, of Westland, president-elect of the Michigan Jaycees.

Next stop for the Handys will be Phoenix, Ariz., where Roger will compete for the national title on June 10.

Sponsored nationally by the U.S. Jaycees, the OYE program is designed to focus attention on the achievements being made in the teaching profession.
