

GRAND GARDENS SUBDIVISION

CLARENCEVILLE

The new plat is now on sale and from all appearances will soon be all closed out as there is nothing along the Grand River road to compare with it in location, quality of soil or general desirability for a home site.

Directly on the car line and the new cement road, with stores, school and churches close at hand and located in a desirable neighborhood it has no equal as a place for a home.

These lots are cut into

and the initial price is so low that they ought to be snapped up quickly. The price will be advanced as the lots are sold and it is advisable to make an early selection on that account. Prices range from and the terms are made easy. $50 gets a contract when the balance can be paid monthly as the buyer desires. A $10 deposit will secure your choice of lot and when $50 is paid the contract is issued.

Don't make the usual mistake of neglecting this opportunity until the prices advance. Pick your lot now and get the benefit of the advance which is sure to come in a very short time. As an this chance is unequalled for these lots will double in value within two years.

Salesmen are at work on this subdivision in Detroit, but people in this locality can make first choice by making early application.

Salesmen will be on the ground Sundays, but plats can be seen at the Enterprise office in Farmington or the Record office in Redford on any day. All information can be had at either place of

C. E. RAMSEY, LOCAL AGENT

or by application to

The ice men report an excellent harvest.

A necktie social will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Boylan on Schoolcraft road Monday next, for the benefit of St. Mary's church. An invitation is extended to all.

Charley Cross has moved from the farm that he sold for golf grounds to the Phoenix club and is now located in the residence that he owns on the Philbrick subdivision.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Burgess spent Sunday in Detroit visiting friends and incidentally celebrating their 26th wedding anniversary.

The village of Redford needs a village hall and the township of Redford needs a town hall. Why not join and build one for both purposes?

The Masonic Lodge owns the best building site in the village and much of it is going to waste at present. There is a demand for more store room right now and the demand is bound to grow at a rapid rate from now on. It looks like a good proposition for the Masons to get busy and put up a temple with stores for rental on the ground floor. Such a proposition can easily be made a paying investment.

Dr. Lynn J. Beardslee, a former Redford boy, died at his home in Detroit last Saturday after an illness that extended over a period of about a year.

He was 40 years of age and had practiced at his profession of dentistry in Detroit for several years, offices being at Woodward Avenue and Clifford street and in the J. Henry Smith building.

Besides his parents, Mr. and Ira Beardslee, he leaves a wife, four brothers, Charles, Clyde, Emerson and Alvin, and a sister, Mrs. Hill Marlow.

The funeral was held at the residence on Monday afternoon at two o'clock, in charge of Rev. J. D. MacDonald. At Elmwood cemetery the services were in charge of the Knights Templars of the Detroit Commandery.

Mr. Beardslee was held in high esteem by the whole community here, where he was well known and also had the respect of a large circle of friends in the city.

Articles of incorporation for the new Redford State Bank, with a capital stock of $25,000, were filed with the state banking department at Lansing yesterday.

The stockholders are: Thos E. Houghtalen, Adele M. Bosworth, Chas. A. Laisher, Samuel D. Holcomb of Redford; former Governor Fred M. Warner, M. B. Pierce and Clinton W. Wilber of Farmington—Detroit Sunday Tribune.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Burgess have moved into the Wilhelm residence temporarily.

The "birthday" party of the Young Ladies' Missionary society took place Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edward Merritt. A delightful afternoon was spent and eight dollars birthday money added to the treasury. Dainty refreshments were served.
