Sunday Liquor Passes; Local Reps Opposed, 4-2

The Michigan House of Representatives has passed and sent to Gov. Romney a bill legalizing Sunday sales of liquor by the glass.

The vote was 60-44. Among those voting yes were Reps. Richard Young, D-Deerborn Heights, and Vincent Pettipiece, D-Westland.

Negative votes were cast by Reps. Raymond Baker, R-Farmington; John Bonnett, D-Redford; Louis Schmidt, R-Livonia; and James Tierney, D-Garden City.

Gov. Romney, a non-drinker by religious conviction, is not expected to veto the bill, although he may let it become law without his signature.

SUNDAY LIQUOR sales could be authorized by county boards of supervisors or by public referendum.

They would be limited to establishments which derive more than half their gross receipts from the sale of food. In effect, restaurants but not taverns would be eligible for such licenses.

No Sunday sales could be made before 2 p.m.

THE CHANGE had been sought primarily by Detroit convention interests.

The issue became of greater importance to Michigan after the Canadian province of Ontario in 1967 began permitting limited Sunday liquor-by-the-glass sales. That law gave Windsor a competitive advantage over Detroit restaurants.

The State Senate passed the Sunday liquor bill two weeks ago by a vote of 21-15. It was opposed by all three Conservative senators—Republicans George Kuhn of West Bloomfield, N. Lorraine Beebe of Dearborn Heights and Democrat William Faust of Westland.

More Can See Crown Jewels

More people than ever are expected to view the British crown jewels in their new home -- a $1 million strong-hold 20 feet below ground at the Tower of London.

The priceless jewels -- crowns, swords, scepters, oris, maces, rings and bracelets -- are displayed in larger space so more people can view them at the same time.
