Dr. Feinsinger will be away from Detroit over the weekend to attend his son's graduation.

STATE AND LOCAL ROUNDUP

ation in the West. He will return Monday, hopefully to bring both sides again to the bargaining table to reach agreement on economic issues.

Four unions—pressmen, paperhandlers, printers and photoengravers—remain on strike. However, new contracts also must be signed with nine other nonstriking unions. Friday, the Publishers Association met with the pressmen and printers while the Detroit Free Press negotiating team met with representatives of the American Newspaper Guild.

LANSING — The Michigan State Legislature has passed a bill permitting Detroit to raise its city income tax from one to two percent. The bill has been sent to Governor Romney for approval.

DETROIT — The Wayne

County Board of Supervisors has approved a $40,000 allocation to purchase antiriot equipment.

DETROIT — City commissioners have indicated they will decide at an informal meeting whether to pass a resolution which would put them on record in favor of, or against, the city's open-housing ordinance.

LANSING — A bill which would increase the power of school districts to borrow money without voter approval appears to be running into trouble in the state legislature, despite having already been passed by both the House and the Senate.

JACKSON — The Jackson City Commission has taken the first step toward passage of an open housing ordinance.

DETROIT — The Ford Co.

Smitt, 39, serves the 53rd House district, which includes the city of Ann Arbor and Ann Arbor Township. He has used his training and experience as a consulting engineer to help draft and work for passage of some highly technical and legislation and on conservation and water resources.

GRAND RAPIDS — Non-unionized city employees in Michigan's second largest city have walked off their jobs after overwhelmingly turning down a city offer for a new contract.

DETROIT — The Ford Co. reported a nine per cent increase in sales last month over May 1967, boasting new car sales in the United States by the four major auto manufacturers past the 3.5-million mark for the year.

HILLSDALE — Hillsdale county has been reapportioned into nine districts for representation on the county board of supervisors.

DETROIT — Thirty executives from 14 Detroit-area businesses are attempting to locate through fellow businessmen at least 5,000 summer jobs for disadvantaged youths in Wayne, Oakland, and Macomb counties.

The campaign is sponsored by the National Alliance of businessmen, headed by Henry Ford II and named by President Johnson.

All Hope Abandoned For Sub 'Scorpion'

WASHINGTON—The Pentagon has officially declared the nuclear-powered submarine Scorpion, with 99 men aboard, lost in the deep Atlantic. A massive search failed to turn up any sign of the sub after it failed to return to Norfolk, Va., May 27.

WASHINGTON—The House has refused to risk having the Senate-passed open control bill, with some gun-control provisions, watered down in a conference committee. A resolution
