

Canterbury Commons

By JOANNE TAKAI, 626-1786

In spite of the poor weather on Memorial Day, the Canterbury Commons Bike Parade was a success. About 450 children participated in the event. The Girl Scouts of Troop 225, under the leadership of Marge Jellison, performed the flag raising ceremony. The younger children paraded in the park area, and the older children rode their bikes around the streets of the subdivision, led by Lt. Thomas Schriber, of the Farmington Township Police Department.

Riding along with the kids was Chuck Wenzel, to make sure of everyone's safety. The co-chairmen for the parade were Virginia Wenzel and Chris Spasoff. Thanks to them, and also to the following people for their able assistance at the park: Shirley Spasoff, Celia Hocking, Marlene Albert, Don and Carol Lunders, Joan and Ed LaVanya, Ray and Mildred Bradford and Marge Kalce.

AFTER THE BIKE PARADE, a few picnics were held, most of them inside, because of the weather. The Wenzels, of Midland Dr., had the Bradfords, the LaVanyas, and their kids, and the Dahlbergs and their grandson, Mark.

The Hoskings, also of Midland Dr., had an indoor picnic, with many, many relatives attending. Apologies to Al Keinke and Jim Paul, both of Midland Dr., for leaving you out of last week's column. Al is the new Nation Chief of the Cheyenne Tribe of Indian Guides, and Jim is the new Nation Chief of the Yacow Tribe.

RECENTLY the bowling banquet for the Ladies Bowling League was held in Livonia Knights Inn. Both the lobster and the roast beef dinners were delicious. Prizes were awarded in the form of trophies, crying towels and mugs of flowers.

The first place trophy winners were Marie Campbell, Marcia Myers, Eleanor Brewin and Ruth Williamson. Second Place trophies were awarded to Doris Foreman, Bee Galtner, Reggie Oswald and Mary Slueter.

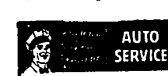

Jean Ripard was awarded a trophy for the person who had most improved her average over the season. Eleven mugs of flowers were awarded to women who had not missed any days of bowling. It was a very well planned and executed banquet, and we thank the past officers Doris Foreman, Peg Gordon, Doris Knop and Donna Lindberg.

New officers for the 1968-69 season will be Bee Galtner, Caroline Mills, Joyce Zarvos and Pat McCarthy.

A WELCOME COFFEE was held on Midland this past week for a new neighbor, Gettrude Haapala. Ruth Bauer was hostess, and drinking the coffee were Mary Gibson, Dolores Hamilton, Sue Arabian, Evelyn Sawyer, Jane Toomajian, Phyllis Mondrow and Vi Moulis.

Arlene Oakley, of Foxgrove Rd., attended the Inter Chapter Council meeting of Alpha Beta Epsilon sorority at the end of May, at Western Michigan University. Arlene is a former president of the council and attends the once-a-year meetings.

A HIPPIE PARTY was held at the Hosking residence of

Honors Paid Top Athletes

Farmington's outstanding athletes were honored last week at separate award banquets at Farmington and North Farmington High Schools.

Mike McCoy, a senior at North Farmington, was awarded the Halder Cup which is presented annually in recognition of scholastic and athletic achievement.

McCoy is a letterman in varsity football, basketball and baseball and has won conference honors in all three sports. He holds the school scoring record in basketball of 37 points in one game. He has a 7.0 average for all three years and has a scholarship to Central Michigan University in Mt. Pleasant.
