

Baker Makes It Official

State Representative Raymond L. Baker (R-Farmington, 54th District) today made it official that he was a candidate for re-election. Baker previously said he would be a candidate at a testimonial dinner in his honor earlier this Spring.

Baker is a registered pharmacist by profession, and retired from his own business in 1959 to become a full time legislator. He was born in Lakes Orion, Mich., and is a lifetime resident of Oakland County.

In his capacity as Chairman of the Conservation and Recreation Committee, he has introduced and sponsored into law many bills relative to conservation, drug and liquor problems.

Distribute Directory

The first standardized city directory ever published for Farmington is now being delivered to subscribers by R.L. Polk & Co.

The new reference book lists the names and addresses of all residents and business places in Farmington, with 18 established as the minimum listing age.

A story short about the community; yellow (classified) pages; an alphabetical list of all residents and firms; directory of householders; and a numerical telephone page.

The classified (yellow) pages catalog 173 varieties of enterprises from Accountants-Car Washes to X-Ray Laboratories, testifying to the diversity of Farmington's commercial, industrial, and professional life.

Special features of the alphabetical list of names are the listing of wives, the designation of the heads of households, the designation of occupations, sewer, and mailed to those who prefer to benefit from such storm sewer in Eldred, Robinson and Redfield area, to determine their desire and willingness to enter into such a Special Assessment District. Carried unanimous.

On Motion made, supported and carried the meeting was adjourned at 9:05 p.m.

Respectfully submitted
FLOYD A. CAIRNS,
Farmington Township Clerk
GLADYS THOMAS,

At Home In Old Homestead

Several of our young people are members of the graduating class of 1968 at North Farmington High School. They are: Walter Bomb, Pam Campbell, Pat Cummins, Gail Galster, Dennis Howes, Bonnie Homm, Ralph Hurst, Ruth Ann Handzlik, Terry Simmons, Kathy Steele, Chris Taylor, Bob Williams and Lane Kibsgard. Lane is a foreign exchange student who has made her home with the Gilson family.

Terry Simmons was hostess at a breakfast on the morning after the prom serving about 20 guests, after which the group headed for the beach for some fun in the sun.

PERHAPS some of our newer residents are not aware of the swimming facilities which are available to the public in the Clarencville High School on Middlebrook Rd., near the Livonia Mall. For a nominal fee, you can enjoy an hour in the Olympic-size pool. Schedules can be secured by calling the school.

BRANDS SIMMONS was one of the 40 young people to become members of The First Presbyterian Church on Sunday, May 19.
