Mediator Fails, Detroit Remains Without Papers

Hope for a quick settlement in the 217-day strike of Metropolitan Detroit daily newspapers faded when union leaders, rejected a compromise proposal by Labor Mediator Dr. Nahan. Feinsinger over the weekend.

Dr. Feinsinger, who termed the situation as "the worse. Dr. Feinsinger, who termed the situation as "the worse. Dr. Feinsinger, who termed the situation as "the worse. Dr. Feinsinger, who termed the situation as "the worse," So for the first size months of the third year and then an additional $3$ per month for the 34th, 35th and 36th months of a three-year contract.

The proposal, made over a nationwide television program, was 'immediately turned down by the unions as unacceptable. The unions have been pressing for a 358 paction 36 months but reportedly changed that to $43 for a contract beginning last December from the time the strike started. Then Monday, the Steredypers Union voted to strike, joining the Printers, Photo Engravers, Paper Handlers and Pressment.

Late Monday afternoon, there was an indication of a pos-
