TALENTED TRIO — Named winners in the recent annual Farmington Jaycee Musical Scholarship Competition held in Farmington High School were (from left) Jerra Gorrell, first place; Arlynne Olson, second, and Jeff Manuel, third. All three attend North Farmington High and all are pianists.

3 NFH Students Win Jaycee Music Contest

Three 15-year old pianists have been named winners in the sixth annual Farmington Jaycee Musical Scholarship Competition held recently in Farmington High School. For the first time, the undertaking was handled by members of the Jaycee Auxiliary.

Jerra Gorrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Gorrell, 2824 Greenwillow, Farmington, won the first place $150 scholarship; Second place Jaycee contest for her residence of Baldwin by Debra Bussell with a $100 scholarship; and third place winners were Arlynne Olson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Olson, 30069 Westfield, Farmington, and Jeff Manuel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Manuel, of Birmingham, a student at North Farmington High.

JERRA, who also attends North Farmington, played Beethoven's "Appassionata" in the competition. She did not accomplish to have won first place, but admitted to The Enterprise & Observer that she is casual about practicing during the school year.

"I practice a lot when I get a chance," she said, "And sometimes I don't."

Jerra is thinking about a career in music, but what kind she hasn't yet decided. She has been accepted for the summer.

Arlynne at Blue Lake Fine Arts Music Camp and plans to begin study of the harp. She has taken piano lessons for six years.

ARLYNE, who will enter North Farmington High next fall, has studied cello for three years and piano for more than a year. She was second place in the Jaycee contest for her residence of Baldwin by Debra Bussell with a $100 scholarship on a scholarship at Michigan State University.

According to Arlynne, if a musical worrie too much about her hands, "She might not even be able to wash the dishes". (Sad Thought). However, the talented miss does admit to wearing three pairs of gloves when she goes skating.

THIRD PLACE WINNER Jeff has studied piano for seven years and played Chopin's "Fantasy Impromtu" in the competition. He has attended Interlochen Music Camp, has played a number of concerts and is thinking about a concert career.

Although Jeff claims he likes rock and roll and classical music "equally well," his mother says, "He listens to rock and roll, but would never be caught 'PLAYING' it."
