

Strawberry And Cream Time Now

By JOYCE TOTEN
Everyone looks forward to the big, beautiful fresh strawberry, and the time to enjoy the best ones is right now. Homemakers want to enjoy the rich rewards from Michigan's strawberry crop by preserving the fresh flavor, bright appearance and tender perfection of this fruit.

To some this means making jam. Others will freeze berries. Most will want to serve all-time favorites like strawberry shortcake, fresh strawberry pie and strawberries and cream.

Here are some possibilities for using the berries in other ways:

STRAWBERRY DELIGHT
1 pt. fresh strawberries or 1 10-oz. pkg. frozen strawberries
1 pkg. strawberry gelatin
1 c. whipping cream
1/4 c. milk or cream
1 3-oz. pkg. cream cheese

Dice or use whole strawberries saving 1 for topping. Prepare gelatin according to package, using quick method; chill until thick but not firm. Whip until stiff whipping cream; blend milk into cream cheese, beating until smooth. Beat gelatin until foamy; fold in cream cheese, whipped cream, reserving enough for topping, and strawberries. Spoon into short hot glasses and top with whipped cream and a strawberry. Chill in refrigerator until set, about 1 hour. Yield 8 servings.

STRAWBERRY MERINGUE PUDDING
3/4 c. cake flour
1 t. baking powder
1/8 t. salt
2 eggs
1/2 cup sugar
1/4 t. vanilla
1 pt. strawberries, sliced and sweetened to taste
2 egg whites
Dash salt
Custard sauce

Sift flour, measure and rest 3 times with baking powder and salt. Beat whole eggs until light and lemon colored, and 1/4 cup of the sugar gradually, beating constantly. Add vanilla, sift the dry ingredients into the egg mixture gradually, and fold in carefully. Turn batter into a greased 8" layer cake pan and bake in a moderate oven 350 F. for 20 to 25 minutes. Place cake on large flat baking sheet and spread berries over top. Cover completely with meringue.

Meringues: Add a dash of salt to the egg whites and beat until stiff but not dry. Gradually beat in the remaining 1/4 cup sugar until thick and smooth. Pile on cake and bake 15 minutes at 350 F. or until meringue is golden brown. May be served warm or cold with a custard sauce.

Simplicity Theme For Beef Blade

Sometimes the best recipes are simplest of all. This is certainly true when popular pot-roast is made with a seasonal vegetable like cabbage and soy sauce as a seasoning.

For Chinese pot-roast, the soy sauce is added to the meat during its slow, lazy cooking period. Cabbage is added during the last seven minutes since it cooks quickly.

A beef arm pot-roast with its o-shaped bone or the blade cut with its long, slender seven-shaped bone may be selected for this recipe, advises meat authority, Tom Stagg. Either, unless pretendered, is classified as a less-tender cut which must be braised for tenderness.

Chinese Pot-Roast
3 to 4 pound beef arm or blade pot-roast
3 tablespoons lard or drippings
1 teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon soy sauce
1/2 cup water
2 quarts shredded cabbage

Brown meat on all sides in lard or drippings. Pour off drippings. Add pepper, soy sauce and water. Cover tightly and cook slowly about 3 hours or until meat is tender. Add cabbage and steam for 7 minutes. Thick with cooking liquid for gravy, if desired. 8 to 8 servings.

Add Masculine Note To Den

Handyman can inject a rugged, masculine note into a remodeled den or family room by covering the old walls with leather-textured paneling.

Available in local building materials stores in brown, tan, white, and green, this 1/8 inch thick leather-textured paneling comes in a wide variety of do-it-yourself projects.

It is ideal, for instance, in giving new life to old tables and desks.

This new panel has the appearance of real cowhide, yet its baked plastic finish resists stains, heat and hard wear.
