

MRS. DAVID MILLROSS
Nancy Burley

Couple Is Married In Plymouth Church

Nancy Burley and David Millross were united in marriage in a ceremony Saturday, June 15, in the First United Presbyterian Church of Plymouth. Dr. Henry J. Walsh officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Herbert C. Burley, of Linden Avenue, Plymouth, and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard E. Millross, of Atlanta, Mich., formerly of Plymouth.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore silk organza over tulle with an empire waistline.

HER SILK illusion veil was held by a pillow and she carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and pink rosebuds.

Janet Kay Burley was her sister's maid of honor and wore a pink saki gown with matching halo. Her flowers were baby rosebuds and white snowflake mums in a colonial bouquet. Identical gowns were worn by bridesmaids Jane Vallier and Carol Ayers. Their flowers and boutonnieres were similar.

THE BRIDEGROOM had his brother, Leonard, as his best man. Ushers were Robert Weber, Kenneth Drenth, Thomas Hicks and Jon Hopkins.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Burley wore lime green Italian silk with pink accessories. Mrs. Millross selected the same color with navy and white accessories.

The reception was held in the church hall.

The new Mrs. Millross was graduated from Alma College while her husband received his degree at Central Michigan University. Both will teach in Traverse City.
