MAN AT WORK—With all the flair of a French chef, William J. Graves, 31751 Marblehead Rd., Farmington, prepares his Chicken Conquistador, for which he was named one of 10 finalists in the annual King of the Patio contest staged by the Detroit Edison Co.

Graves' Chicken Conquistador Conquers Contest

If the head of the house mans the outdoor barbecue this summer, the William J. Graves family, 31751 Marblehead Rd., Farmington, will eat well.

Graves was one of 10 finalists in the Detroit Edison Company's annual King of the Patio contest held recently.

His job at American Sterilizer Co. doesn't sound as if it would make him a cooking expert, but Graves' recipe for Chicken Conquistador, exotic as it sounds, puts him in the cordon bleu class.

Graves might like to keep it a secret, but here is his recipe:
2 cups Chablis dry wine
4 tablespoons olive oil
1 teaspoon lemon juice
1 clove garlic, minced
1/4 teaspoon ginger
1 cup honey

1 tablespoon sesame seeds
salt and pepper
6 legs and thighs or cut up chicken pieces as preferred.

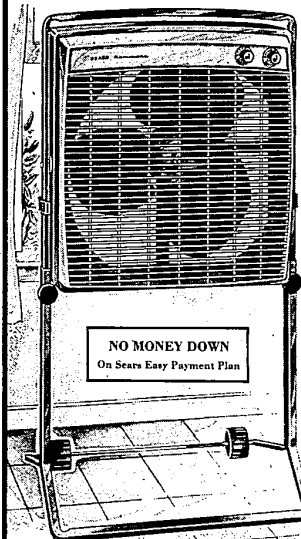

1. Combine wine, oil, lemon juice, garlic, ginger, salt and pepper.

2. Marinate chicken pieces overnight in above mixture.

3. Place chicken in a rotisserie basket and grill one hour and 15 minutes, or until done, basting with the left over marinade.

4. During the last 20 minutes, glaze the chicken with honey and sprinkle with sesame seeds. This makes six servings.
