New OCC Faculty Gets 31 Pct. Hike

Agreement has been reached by the Oakland Community College Faculty Association and OCC administration for a contract for 1968-69, effective July 1, William Stuart, chief negotiator for the Association, and W.H. Nikkel, representing the College administration, announced jointly.

The contract was ratified by the Faculty Association on June 17 and by the Board of Trustees at its regular meeting on June 18.

"The Faculty Association is pleased that a fair and equitable agreement has been able to be effected prior to the end of this contract year," Stuart, who is an assistant professor in political science at Orchard Ridge Campus, in Farmington, said.

* * *

PRINCIPAL ITEM in the new contract is an approximate across-the-board adjustment of $2,000 which increases the beginning salary for instructors with a master's degree from $6,500 to $8,500.

"This represents an increase of 31 per cent," Nikkel said, "the first major salary increase since the college opened in September, 1955."

For the 185 faculty members, the increase will amount to a total of $370,000.

In addition, the college will assume the faculty portion of hospitalization insurance, which will amount to approximately $50,000.

* * *

OTHER ITEMS in the new contract include a sabbatical leave policy which can be requested at the beginning of the faculty member's fourth year of service, the recognition of an Academic Senate, and the replacing of a five-year contract by a continuing contract provision, effective at the beginning of the fourth year of service.

C'ville Mourns Lois McColloch

LOIS McCOLLOCH
Counseling Director

Miss Lois McColloch, 54, of 28100 Grand River, Farmington, director of counseling for Clarenceville High School, died suddenly June 17.

She had been a counselor at Clarenceville for seven years. "All her life had been dedicated to service of one kind or another," Clarenceville High's Principal Anthony Marra said, in honoring her.

A memorial service will be held today (Sunday) in the Birmingham Unitarian Church, 651 N. Woodward, Bloomfield Hills. Rev. Robert Marshall will officiate.

Private services were held June 19 in White Chapel Cemetery.

MISS McCOLLOCH was active in the Dollars for Scholars campaigns at CHS, and relatives have asked that money be donated to that fund in lieu of flowers. Money may be mailed to the church in Birmingham, or the school, 20155 Middlebelt Rd., Livonia, with checks payable to Clarenceville Schools.

Miss McColloch earned a reputation for "getting things done," Marra said. Recently the students canvassed the community for money for Dollars for Scholars; when transportation arrangements bogged down, she arranged for four Army jeeps to move the students about.

"She wouldn't let any project rest," Marra added.

* * *

MISS McCOLLOCH held a bachelor's degree from Baker University and a master of arts degree from Northwestern University.

She was a former assistant dean of women at Pennsylvania State University, former assistant dean of women at Yankton College, program director of the National Unitarian Women's Association and former president of the National Unitarian Fellowship for Social Justice.

She was survived by a sister, Mrs. Arthur (Lila) Poinier, of Ann Arbor.
