Marine Cpl. Jack Karle has reported to El Toro, Calif., following a 10-day leave with his family. Jack has just completed a course in aviation support and maintenance. A letter to his mother from the Navy Department has informed her that Cpl. Karle was the honor student in his class of 225 men. Jack will be based in California for an indefinite time for more training.

TEN COUPLES had a most enjoyable time at the Square Dance Club's final get-together of the season in our house. The group will resume dancing in September. If any newcomers would like to join with us they would be welcome. Call me if you are interested and would like more details.

May Capo Installed As Honored Queen

May Capo was installed as honored queen of Farmington Bethel 55, International Order of Job's Daughters, at the group's recent 25th annual installation of officers and Bethel Choir.

Retiring honored queen, Julie Lindholm, presided at the ceremony, assisted by past honored queens: Nadene Voznovich, Jere Bachelor, Linda Koschowsky, Lorraine Hoeglund, Charlotte Olson, Sharon Thomas and Mary Capo, majority members, and Val Lough, Bethel member. Mrs. Alma Primrose served as musician and Pat Collier, P. H. Q. Dearborn Bethel 72, as soloist. Mrs. Mary Legg and Delbert Brewer, past guardians, were mistress and master of ceremonies. Pages were Cheryl Mitchell and Vickie, Susan and Sandy Brough.

Theme for the service, the "Ceremony of the Flowers," was narrated by Miss Lough.

Michelle Brough assisted in the formation of the flower arch by Bethel members through which the new honored queen was escorted to the east by her father, Joseph Capo. Other officers installed were Cheryl Durham, senior princess; Pamela Hoeglund, guide; and Beverly Lough, marshal. Appointive officers chosen by May Capo include Diane Susterlin, Vicki Willson, Judy Thomas and Linda Vandenheuvel, messengers; Louanne Barnes and Diane Sabon, custodians; Betty Goodell and Mary Ballinger, guards; Linda Lavaska, musician; Karla Jaske, librarian; Betty Murphy, chaplain; Pat Stewart, recorder; and Carol Pagel, treasurer. Linda Cobb will serve as flag bearer.

Special guests included guardians, Mollie Lough and Andrew Thomas, Bethel 55; Neola Martin, Southfield Bethel 81 and past Bethel 55 guardian; Delbert Brewer, present associate guardian of Southfield Bethel 81 and past Bethel 55 associate guardian; and past guardians Mrs. Collier, Dearborn 72; Gladys Thomas and Mary Legg, of Farmington Bethel 55.

Howard Legg, past associate guardian and present grand guardian Council Outer Guard, brought greetings from the Grand Council. Also attending were Mrs. Edna Sier, worthy matron, Farmington Chapter Order of the Eastern Star 239; Miss Beatrice Browning, worthy high priestess Trinity Shrine 44; and Edward Bean, master councilor Farmington Order of DeMolay.

Wood Creek had several high school graduates this month, all but one from North Farmington High School: Denise Kreider, John Wendling, Katie Monagan, Gary Friedly, Shelley Ludwig and Doug Lam.

Of these, I have been able to reach the following to know the colleges which they will attend. Gary Friedly will go to Eastern Michigan in Ypsilanti, Shelley to the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor, and Doug Lam will follow in his brother's footsteps and go to Duke in North Carolina. Bill Reader graduated from Culver Military Academy and will go to Denison College in Ohio. Aren't we proud of this fine group!

Grace Fisher had the Republican Women of Farmington Hills, 25 strong, for a pot luck lunch in her house on Monday. Because of the inclement weather, it had to be held indoors. They had a very fine speaker, Mrs. Homer Higby, of Farmington, who spoke on Vietnam, a subject on which she is well qualified because she and her husband had lived in Saigon from 1955 through 1957 when Mr. Higby was second in command of AID.

Zickie Reader is home after completing another year at Brown University in Providence, R.I. He brought a very charming young lady with him for a visit here. Callie Arnold's home is in Cranston, R.I. She graduated from Endicott Jr. College in Massachusetts and transferred to the Rhode Island college for her junior and senior years. Zickie plans to work at Ford Hospital this summer.
