

Madonna Public Seminar To Probe Race Crisis

America's racial unrest and violence will be explored during a nine-part seminar on "Race, Attitudes, Policy, Action" sponsored by Madonna College in Livonia from July 8 to 25.

70 Die In Soccer Stampede

BUENOS AIRES — Club fights at a soccer game in Buenos Aires ended in a stampede that killed 70 persons as flaming newspapers, hurled by hooligans into the stadium, forced the mob down a jammed and close stairway.

SAIGON — In efforts to ward off Viet Cong attacks on Saigon, 19 Americans were killed in five helicopter crashes.

WORLD ROUNDUP

caused a third one to crash. Spokesmen added the other two helicopters were shot down by enemy gunners.

CANADA — Jean Baptiste Trudeau became Canada's prime minister this week as 10 million Canadian voters put into the high office the first millionaire in history.

TORONTO — Three major strikes in Canada left garbage piling up in the streets, beer supplies threatened in Canada and the St. Lawrence Seaway clogged.

LONDON — Instead of walking out on strike, British railroad workers are refusing to work overtime and working exactly by the union rules.

ATHENS — Greece's military regime continued to run the government with military strictness last week when 30 members of the judiciary were fired for the stated reason "no longer has the moral prestige of the office."

VIENNA — The International Confederation of Authors and Composers Societies will convene to consider what Britain's Sir A.P. Herbert calls "the disastrous trends which are now menacing authors' rights throughout the world."

PANMUNJOM, Korea — A Japanese-made boat with American outboard motors on it was displayed as an American spy boat this week at the Joint Military Armistice Commission.

VANCOUVER — A fire at the Clarence Hotel took the lives of three persons. The survivors were rescued from windowsills by firemen using aerial ladders.

Two Detroiters, John Priztil and Raffaele Quarano, were at large during the trial. They are believed to be in the United States.

Director Davis said "the seminar on 'Race, Attitudes, Policy, Action' aims to give knowledge and theoretical insight into the current racial issues which affect the daily life of all in some way."

"TOGETHER, through an open and sincere interaction of participants and seminar leaders, we will try to look beyond the current events in our society in order to better understand the racial tumult in the United States today."

"It will not be difficult to understand that the Negro revolution is nothing more than the Negro's way of demanding equal opportunities NOW. The young Negro, especially, who has been exposed all of his life to the teachings of the great American scriptures of democracy, freedom and equality, is no longer willing to wait for his inherent rights."

"We therefore welcome participants from every part of Livonia, Plymouth, Detroit and the neighboring communities. Together we hope to develop a closer understanding of what we can do to help make our democracy a reality for everybody."

PROGRAM SCHEDULE for the seminar will be as follows: Session I, July 8—"Patterns of Prejudice and Discrimination in Employment, Education and Housing," Director Davis, and Wilma Ray, assistant director of community services of the Civil Rights Commission.

Session II, July 10—"The New Militancy," Rev. Dr. James C. Chambers, pastor of St. John United Presbyterian Church, and Rev. Albert Ciesie, pastor of the Shrine of the Black Madonna.

Session III, July 11—"The Racial Ghetto," Mrs. Lena Berens, board member of the Michigan Welfare League and member of the Mayor's Policy Board and the New Detroit Commission, and Francis Korngay, executive director of the Detroit Urban League.

Session IV, July 15—"New Teachers for the New Challenges of the Ghetto Schools," Joseph F. Miller, region I assistant superintendent of the Detroit Public Schools.

Session V, July 17—"Interfaith Relations, Practices and Programs in Metropolitan Detroit," Rabbi M. Robert Syme, Temple Israel, and Tony Locricchio, seminarian, St. John's Provincial Seminary. Session VI, July 18—"The Role of Local Government as an Activist in the Inner City and the City at Large," Richard Marks, Mayor's Commissioner on Human Relations.

Session VII, July 22—"Human Relations and the Police Department," Inspector Carl Heffernan, Citizen's Complaint Bureau of the Detroit Police Department, and Capt. Robert Turner, Investigative Section administrator, Livonia Police Department.

Session VIII, July 24—"The Black Power and the White

Establishment," Ernest Brown, manager urban affairs, Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. Session IX, July 25—"What I Can Do to More Effectively Unite My Community," Mr. City, Now in 1968," Rudolph R. Kleinert, Livonia City Council, Philip Power, publisher of the Observer newspaper; Ed Davis, president of Ed Davis, Inc.; Dorothy Mann, director, Operation Understanding; Grace Marcus, League of Women Voters membership chairman; Andrew Brown, Grosse Pointe Open Housing Committee, and Miss Rose Jordan, session recorder.

THOSE PERSONS wanting to enroll for the seminar are asked to contact Director Davis at Madonna College. Enrollment in the seminar will be limited to 200 persons.
