

At Home In Old Homestead

By IRENE BARTH

A senseless piece of vandalism took place on Friday at the Art Gruenwald residence on Old Homestead Rd. when a person or persons unknown threw an object into their swimming pool. The object saturated with what is believed to be ink, caused a blue color to spread throughout the pool leaving behind blue stains. Mr. Gruenwald is naturally very upset and has offered a reward to anyone bringing him information leading to the apprehension and prosecution of the guilty party or parties. Please call Gruenwalds if you have any information.

ON TUESDAY, June 18, Terese Gibbs and Rosemary Webb were co-hostesses in Rosemary's home at a brunch to introduce new neighbor, Maureen Scanlon, to some of the ladies who live near her. Fruit-cup, sausages, coffee-cake and a fancy dessert made everyone cast aside their caloric-combustors for a time. Those who attended were Lena Moore, June Hukala, Isabel Johnson, Jeanne Plante, Shirley Simmons, Sophia Kamecki and yours truly.

Leo Smith was hostess at a lovely luncheon on Wednesday of last week. The guest of honor, Mrs. F. Shevlin, of Pennsylvania, who is visiting at the Chick Williams' is a most gracious lady. Present from Kendallwood were Margaret Love and Gloria Salzano and rounding out the guest list were Grace Dulan, Pat Williams, and myself.

RECENT VISITORS to the Ray Campbell's home were Mrs. Anna Campbell, of Albany, N.Y., and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Nussbaum, parents of Sis, also of Albany. The main purpose of their trip was to attend graduation exercises of granddaughter, Pamela. A family party was held in Pam's honor, which was attended also by many of Pam's friends. The Campbells were saddened last week when their poodle, Blau, drowned in their swimming pool.
