

Summer Theaters Listed

Michigan's "come as you are" theatres are offering everything this season from special productions for children to the most sophisticated Broadway musicals, according to the Michigan Tourist Council.

The 1968 edition of the "Michigan Guide to Summer Theatres," just off the press, lists 19 summer theatre groups active in the state this season. The theatres are located across the state from Detroit to Calumet and include a wide offering of entertainment throughout the summer.

The guide, compiled and published by the Michigan Tourist Council, details such information as theatre locations, curtain times, types of auditorium, player systems, ticket prices and reservation information.

Michigan's summer theatre groups will be appearing on stages in tents, barns, arenas, and some in regular auditoriums. Talent ranges from celebrated stars to community and resident players cast in roles of classic, standard and recent hit productions.

Copies of the Theatre Guide are available without charge from the Michigan Tourist Council, Lansing, 48926.

Italy Has New Premier

ROME -- Italy's 62th post-war government's president, Giuseppe Saragat, swore in Premier Giovanni Leone and a cabinet made up of 22 other Christian Democrats.

Temporary until a Socialist party congress next fall, the new cabinet's leader headed a similar interim cabinet in 1963 previous to the initial coalition between the Christian Democrats and Socialists.
