Obituary

Mrs. Lucy L. Adams
Mrs. Lucy L. Adams of 18430 Shadydale Avenue, Livonia, died suddenly on Friday afternoon, November 10, at Mercy Hospital in Brighton, where she had been convalescing from injuries received October 28 in an automobile accident.

Lucy Lorraine Adams was born August 16, 1891, in Williamsport, Pennsylvania; the daughter of Charles M. and Ann Willis Shook. She was united in marriage on June 13, 1925, to Merion Adams of Farmington. Mr. and Mrs. Adams had lived all of their married life in Livonia. Mr. Adams has been an employee of the Livonia Township Schools for many years.

Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock from the Farmington Methodist Church with the Rev. A. Stanley Stone officiating and burial took place in the North Farmington cemetery. Mrs. Adams rested at the Thayer Funeral Home until noon Monday.

Surviving besides her husband, Merion, are three daughters, Mrs. Fred Moore of Jersey Shore, Pennsylvania; Mrs. Annie McKinley of Fenton, Michigan; and Mrs. Edith Davies of Mesa, Arizona. She leaves one brother, Edgar Shook of Dubolstown, Pennsylvania.

Donald LeDoux Aboard Cruiser "Roanoke"

Donald H. LeDoux, seaman, USN, 2355 State Street, is serving aboard the light cruiser USS Roanoke, which is participating in the fall maneuvers of the U. S. Second Fleet.

The training operations include air defense, replenishment at sea, and amphibious exercises as well as problems in merchant ship convoy assembly. The entire operation is under the command of Vice Admiral M. B. Gardner, USN.

WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

ator Vandenberg's shoes as the GOP spokesman on foreign affairs. The second only to Senator Taft in Republican influence. But, suddenly, Bridges lashed out with a vitriolic attack against the state department.

"This attack, it now develops, was not prepared in Bridges' office at all, but by John L. Lewis' public relations' firm, the Allied Syndicate."

Spill-off came when the Bridges statements were delivered by mistake to the wrong party at the Capitol. A press attendant called the error, but no one in the senator's office seemed to know about it. They didn't even know that he was making a statement on foreign policy.

Later, Arthur Reilly, a former John L. Lewis press-relations man, straightened out the matter of the misplaced Bridges press releases.

Reilly, after serving in United Mine Workers headquarters, was sent to the Washington office of the Allied Syndicate, which works for Lewis. The Bridges statement, incidentally, was prepared while the senator was out of the city.

So it looks as if the $35,000 salary paid by John L. was producing more from Senator Bridges than his services as trustee on the miners' pension fund.

ADMIRAL'S PROPAGANDA

The Admirals' propaganda outfit, "Operation 23," was supposed to have been abolished after the B-28 feud last fall. It was the cause of a bitter battle between the air force and the navy, with the result that forthright Secretary of the Navy Matthews dispersed the naval officers in charge.

However, it now develops that the ghost of "Operation 23" is still haunting the air force. The same old anti-air force stories are being leaked to the press. In fact, navy propagandists, believe it or not, are spreading the same identical stories as the Communists about the air force; namely that U.S. airplanes have been killing North Korean women and children.

Actually, B-29 raids in Korea have been so accurate that they demolished the Woonang armaments plants without even touching the rows of workers' houses alongside.

Some admirals are also coming out into the open with the same view that got them into trouble over unification. Rear Adm. Stuart Ingersoll, for instance, harangued a recent conference of American mayors on the navy's success in Korea as if the air force did not exist.

SUNSHINE LADY TELLS PLAN FOR CHRISTMAS PARTY

Ruth McClure, Ward 302, "A" Building at the Wayne County Hospital, Elio, Mich., writes me that in all the 15 years she has been at the hospital, no member of her family has been able to visit her. Outside of two sisters in another state, she is alone in the world. So sincere is her desire for just a bit of friendship that because of her and other women of her ward who have no family to visit them, and because all in the ward are shut-ins of many years' standing, the Christmas party will be given for that ward. The time and date will be known later. Dr. Ray Morton Hardy, pastor of the Fourtowns Community Church, has been kind enough to offer to help by giving a song recital.

The Aldrich Nurseries of Farmington, wishing to do their part, has sent five dollars for the shut-in's Christmas fund. We think that is grand, as the party will be given for some 100 lonely women.

Two dollars has been sent in by Farmington's "Aunt Ellen," who in private life is E. J. Watson of 21620 Hamilton Avenue. This grand person has been very busy for many months, doing her best to make life brighter for others.

Remember a shut-in with a Thanksgiving card.

Victor Wilson, 64 Riverside Drive, Mt. Clemens, is a young lad who enjoys mail. Mrs. Christina Rehahn, 23037 Mayfield, like so many of us, enjoys a friendly note now and then, as does Estella Yarell, Ward 302, Building "A," Wayne County Hospital.

The Seventh Annual World-Wide Bible Reading Program, which is sponsored by the American Bible Society, will begin Thanksgiving Day and end on Christmas Day. This year the theme of the program is "The Bible: A Light and Guide." The passages of Scripture to be read each day during the program have been selected because they show how practical guidance and illumination are to be found in the Bible.

To our young friend who wishes to know about God, one of the things he must remember is roleofficers. Grounds? "Any written set of rules that fits one man is not suited to another case," Commissioner Brooks says.

The rent control picture still is hazy. Pontiac is leading the fray with its problem before the Michigan Supreme Court. As the year draws to an end the cudgel will be taken up in more communities throughout Michigan. Landlords and their tenants already have drawn lines in several of the larger communities.

"Operation American Citizenship," an Educational program sparked by Dr. Lee M. Thurston, state superintendent of public instruction, hopes to "multiply and improve the amount and quality of citizenship education in Michigan."

Election comment: This column adheres to a policy of being non-partisan in its interpretations of state politics. The November 7 vote outcome is now on the record. On Thursday, November 2, this column observed: "Governor Williams has the best chance of any Democratic nominee in more than a decade to win re-election. . . . It will take a lot of Republican votes upstate to offset the Democratic margin of populous Detroit and Wayne County." This was printed five days before Election Day.

The Bible is truly God's word expressed through the minds of men called prophets, and it contains a spiritual message that is vital and useful at all times to people of all ages. Such as "He hath inclined His ear unto me, therefore, will I call upon Him." (Ps. 116:2)
