Extension Members Attend Farmers' Week

Three members of the Farmington Eight Mile Extension Council, Mrs. C. Mortimer, Mrs. Leo Blatter, and Mrs. Frank Platz, attended a one day program last week at the Michigan State College "Farmers' Week" program.

The three heard a description of a planned workshop for the home by Karen Fladnes of the Kitchener-Kitchen in home economics, heard Melvin V. Flock describe "Poultry Breeds for a Purpose" and took a trip through the greenhouses and veterinary hospital. They also heard a greeting by Charles Fity and James J. Gardiner, minister of agriculture of Canada.

WEST POINT PARK Burns Leg With Boiling Water While Trying To Thaw Frozen Pipes

By Miss L. A. Ault
1461-M

While attempting to thaw out frozen water pipes at his home near Walled Lake, John Altman, Jr., son of the Altmans on Shady Side Avenue, accidentally poured a kettle of boiling water into one of the boots he was wearing and severely burned a leg and foot. He suffers much pain and is considered in serious condition.

Mrs. Ernest Tallman, Mayfield Avenue, was ill last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Fisher of Hartwood Avenue left about 10 a.m. Thursday morning, planning to drive through to St. Petersburg, Florida, where they expect to enjoy a month's visit.

Mrs. Julia Wait, who has been quite ill at her home on Farmington Road, is reported resting easier, though still confined to bed.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Adols of Shady Side Avenue set Tuesday, February 6, as their date for starting off on a trip to Florida. Upon their return next month they expect to take up residence in their Norfolk Avenue home, which has been occupied by tenants. Mrs. Adols is much improved from her recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haas, former residents of Hubbard Avenue, now living and conducting an electrical shop on Grand River, left last Sunday for a vacation visit in the south. Mrs. Haas is convalescing from severe illness.

Mrs. Marietta Wyman, Shady Side Avenue, was able to return to her employment last week after a two week illness.

Mrs. Frederick Vincent, Mayfield Avenue, is in the hospital and expected to undergo surgery.

One of the Garret children, Mayfield Avenue, has been ill with a severe case of flu which made hospitalization for a few days necessary.

Word comes that Robert Laughman has become a student preacher for a church in Niles. Mr. Laughman and his wife Tallman were married recently.

Mrs. Russell Kline, Parker Avenue, entertained Saturday, January 27, at a birthday party for her eldest son, Ronald. About a dozen friend guests spent the afternoon at the Kline home. Amusements were provided and refreshments served.

Miss Pauline Varhol, Shady Side Avenue, spent last week end with the Horace Gravelles in Highland Park.

Mrs. Clifford Bentley, Mrs. L. J. Boles of Gill Road, and Mrs. George Kay of Eight Mile Road attended the Hobby Show in Detroit Friday, January 26. All three ladies had handwork on exhibit. Included were metal etching, leather, copper, woven and knit articles.

Mrs. Gerald Roberts of Mayfield Avenue and her new little daughter, Paula Lee, born January 25, left St. Joseph's Hospital last Sunday evening, and have been with Mrs. Roberts' mother, Mrs. Homer Coolman on Shady Side, this week.

Mrs. Frances Kaarinen, Mayfield Avenue, was the guest of Detroit friends last week end.

News comes that Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gedig, who recently had their home in Detroit ransacked by burglars, had their home entered again Sunday night. This last time the intruders appeared to have been
