From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Blue Wins This "Hunt"

Cappy Miller's con dogs—except for one of them, Old Blue—are about the finest hounds in the county. Blue's too friendly and easy-going to care much about hunting. He doesn't act the way we think a good dog should, so we figured he'd never amount to much.

But a fellow comes around Saturday looking for a good dog to photograph for some advertising. And the dog he picks is Blue! Says Blue's happy, friendly face is just the one to attract people's attention. So Cappy gets more money for that picture than his other dogs will ever take in hunt prizes. From where I sit, that should teach us not to look down on humans, when they act differently than we think they should. For instance, maybe you think tea goes best with food. O.K.—but don't size up wrong the man who enjoys a bottle of beer at mealtime.

Like Blue, I guess we're all "different" in one way or another—but that doesn't mean we don't have our good points, too!

Jefferson Jottings

By MRS. NORMAN MOORE
 21719 Jefferson, Phone 2742-J

Mr. and Mrs. Jack McIntosh and family of Windsor, Canada, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Mather and family of Oakland Street.

Russ and Ed Moore were about camped Sunday when they returned from ice fishing at Kent Lake. They were quite lucky, however, so they didn't mind it too much.

Mr. and Mrs. Meisner of Eight Mile Road were dinner guests of their son and his family, the George Meisners of Jefferson Street, on Thursday evening.

Little Danny Miller has fully recovered from his recent illness and is back playing with his many playmates.

Mrs. Estelle Sjaholm of Oakland went to Port Huron last week to attend a meeting of the Blue Star Mothers.

POWER FOR ELECTRIC POWER

The electric power companies will use more bituminous coal in 1951 than ever before. More than 100 million tons will be consumed by this industry as the demand for electricity continues to skyrocket in the United States.

Meadowbrook Murmurs: Suggests Selling Home To Escape Rigors Of Annual Spring Cleaning

This is the time of year when every housewife turns her living room around and needs a vacation because she is just starting to think about the spring housecleaning. Sister's next-door neighbor dropped in the other day and sighed, "Well, we're talking about selling our house again. Every February for the past ten years is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Clare Peeling of Fenat Road.

Things are changing at our house, that's for sure. Exhibition N. M. B. F. F. on our kitchen bulletin board: a rubber nipple with the end chewed off. No more bottles for Freddie!

Gracie's No. 22 has arrived for the George Sculans of 23215 Dresden Street, making the score 12 boys and 10 girls. The new arrival to the family tree is Barbara, the daughter of Leo and Virginia Cuzzillo who moved into their new home on Ferguson Street in Detroit last fall. She weighed five pounds, so looks extra tiny to her big sisters, Cheryl, 13, and Mary Louise, who is 18 months old. Their new doll arrived January 26.

February 14 is coming up next Wednesday and an extra-special Valentine's day is being sent to Patsy Richards, the "adopted Brownie Scout" of the Clarenceville Browns. The girls have made her a real valentine of red velvet with name embroidered on it. And they wanted, too, to have her see her name in print. Patsy is convalescing at home from polio. There will be square dancing at the father-daughter banquet which the Girl Scouts and Brownies are excited about now. Brownie leaders attending a luncheon at the home of Mrs. George Johnson of DeForest Street last Tuesday were busy making plans. Those seated around the table were Miss Mary Ellen Ruff, whom the girls know "Bilby," Mrs. Robert Kider, Mrs. John Gortley, and the Scout's president, Mrs. Vernon Hawley.

A winter tour around the Chicago, Gary, Elkhart and Goshen, Indiana, circuit of relatives has ended for Alfred Snook, who has returned to his winter home at the Richard Vesey's of 23223 Dresden. Riding back to Michigan with him was Mrs. Vesey's aunt, Mrs. William Landis of Claypool, Indiana. They are hoping she will stay for two months.

He got on the plane, ate dinner, and had just decided to write "We're over Battle Creek!" So Harold Young's trip last week end from Camp McCoy, Wisconsin, to the home of his parents at 20704 Middlebelt Road was no longer than a stop at a restaurant. Pvt. Young is in his basic training and the going can be rough these first weeks, especially since the thermometer hit 53 degrees below zero there last week. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Young visited Camp McCoy two weeks ago and Mrs. Young was happy to find that every boy she met was as nice as her son.

Two sons in service is the record for the Frank Cartees of 21432 Jacksonville Street. Homer, who is 20, has been in the Navy three years. He has had 18 months on the sea and touched many places he had longed to see in the Mediterranean and Caribbean areas. He's now back at Great Lakes taking more training as a seaman navigator. Robert Cartee, 22, became an army private in October and is now in the rigors of practical training. He is in the communications school at Camp Polk, Louisiana.

But you've always wondered what two housewives talk about when they sit down across the kitchen table from each other to see who can devour the least coffee in the

Unmarked Fishing Holes Pose Accident Problem

Unmarked, abandoned fishing holes can cause serious accidents, the conservation department warns winter fishermen.

Frequent fresh snows cover deep cuttings, making it difficult to detect weak ice.

Conservation officers ask anglers as well as regular anglers to mark old fishing spots.

Man Pulls Woman's Hair Out

Mrs. A. A. Grass of this city alerted today that one Life McGlocklin deliberately pulled her hair out. She says she didn't even feel it, mostly because the hair wasn't hers. It belonged to her chair, and is that substance one may find in well upholstered pieces.

After pulling her hair out, Mr. McGlocklin of Farmington Upholstering upholstered the chair and, per usual, his meticulous, thorough work gained another happily satisfied customer. Mr. McGlocklin has been quoted as saying: "Hair to day (may be) gone tomorrow — then you'll need me!" Remember our phone please, Farm. 2042. It's an ad.
