The bride, a senior at the University of Michigan, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Robertson of 24857 Farmington Road. Mr. Dott, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Dott of Norman, Oklahoma, is a teaching assistant at the University where he is now doing graduate work.

Janet Robertson of Casper, Wyoming, a sister of the bride, was matron of honor at the 8 p.m. ceremony. Her sister, Janet Robertson of Farmington and Judy Kruger of Detroit were bridesmaids. Don Kelso of Norman Oklahoma, was best man and David Robertson and Jerry Ford, latter from Norman, Oklahoma, were ushers.

The brides' gown was of ivory satin with long tapering sleeves and short train. The gown had a pearl on the collar. A helmet cap held her fingertip veil of illusion with chantilly lace, and she carried a bouquet of pink orchids and white lilies.

The maid of honor wore a deep turquoise gown and carried yellow daffodils and anise-croton leaves. The bridesmaids wore similar turquoise and matching caps, and also carried yellow daffodils.

The bride's mother wore a floor-length toast crepe dress at the double-ring ceremony, with matching hat and white gloves. Mrs. Dott chose maroon velvet with watching hat and lace mitts. Both mothers wore Johanna Hill rose corsages.

Following the ceremony, a reception for about 150 guests was held in the flower-bedecked Botford Inn. Mrs. Chester Henning presided at the guest register.

The brides' black-velvet gown dress with ivory lace collar and cuffs, lime color coat, and black accessories were the traveling dress chosen by the bride for her wedding trip to Chicago. The couple are now at home at 504 South 4th Avenue, Ann Arbor.

Are You Ready, Paw?

I got my grocery list all made out and you should git goin' if you expect me to have dinner ready at noon. I listened when the phone rang this morning and the guy with the buzz saw is gonna be here about 9 o'clock. Do you think they'll be here for supper, too? You know there's about 50 cord of wood in that buzz pile. I sort of thought that a big pot of oyster stew would be good. You be sure and go to Conroy's and git the oysters because they have them fresh from Maryland and you know they're good cause we had 'em before. They're only 79c a pint and maybe you should git about two quarts. Git me a 25 lb. bag of that Gold Medal flour for $1.99 and I'll make some hot rolls. They should like them and I'm kinda proud of my rolls since I took the prize at the County Fair. We'll wait until this week end when we take the eggs to town to git the rest of the groceries. I think I'd like to have some fish next week sometime. They have them fresh frozen Blue Water filets of Ocean Perch and Cod and Haddock. I like them cause you don't have to pick out a lot of bones. You git the kind you like, Paw — I like 'em all. Then ask Nels if they're gonna have more of those fresh dressed chickens for sure. He said he thought they would. It it's nice by Sunday some of the folks from the city will be out and you know they always expect chicken when they come to the farm. Better leave an order for a couple of 'em. They're only 53c a lb. — and if the weather is bad I'll jest cold pack one of 'em and we'll have somethin' to eat around here if we can't git out when all this ice starts to thaw.
