MRS. HOWARD LEWIS
22322 Springbrook
PHONE FARM. 3011-W

After a visit with his parents on Springbrook Drive, Tom Goers has returned to San Diego, where his ship, the aircraft carrier USS, is in drydock. The Sicily, first carrier to dock at Long Beach Naval Yard from Korean waters, came into the news recently when its commander, Captain John S. Thuch, received the Legion of Merit.

Mrs. Gilbert Treweek and Mrs. John Brantford were hostesses at a surprise birthday party honoring Mrs. Henry Harrison on Monday, April 2.

Among students home visiting their families at Easter were Paul Rudy and Judy DeLong from Michigan State, Barbara Jones from Central Michigan, and Bruce Treweek of the University of Michigan.

Garry and Dale Vallancourt, sons of Mr. and Mrs. George Vallancourt, are recuperating from the chicken pox.

Mrs. Margaret Gassner and her family were pleasantly surprised by a visit from Mrs. Arthur Edgar and Ralph Wiley of Leamington, Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. Elias Harrison, former residents of Tawas, Mich., and their family, are planning to visit old friends on Springbrook Drive.

Mrs. Mildred White and her family from East Detroit visited grandparents and grandfather Taylor last week.

The patter of fourteen pairs of tiny feet echoed through the house when Paul Wiley, seven-year-old, moved, after his birthday celebration, from his home in Tawas, Mich., to his new home in Springbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hibbler of Inlay City were guests of their sister, Mrs. Lyman Bush and family on Sunday.

Mrs. Vern Novack of Detroit was a week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Chalmers Lufkardt.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Revin of Drake Road called on Charles Roggenbush and family last week.

They found him much improved from a recent illness.

Mrs. Clayton Scholer of Haled Road was hostess to the Jolly Fish Club on Wednesday.

Honors went to Mrs. James VanBelle, Mrs. Eunice Morris, and Mrs. Royal McCormick.

A house visit of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Revin is being held by Mrs. H. W. Klein-Schmidt of Oakbrook, Wis.

A number from this community attended the Farm Bureau Dance Saturday evening at Springbrook.

The dance was sponsored by the West Farmington and Walled Lake Farm Bureau groups, with proceeds to go to the Sister Klans of Michigan.

Oliver Nancy Avichouser of Detroit returned to her home Sunday after spending the past week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Avery Avichouser of Haled Road.

Mrs. Emil Kupsky of Howard Road is visiting at the home of her son, Frederick, in Chicago.

Jackie Howell, daughter of the Great House of Haled Road, has returned to school after being absent the past week with chicken pox.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Leonard of 12 Mile Road were in Detroit on Saturday to see her father, Mr. John Kafel, who is ill at the East Side General Hospital. On Sunday they attended a musical at Music Hall in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Frazer Wadsten were pleasantly surprised Easter Sunday by visits from their daughter, Mrs. Rose H. N., stationed at the Naval Hospital at Bethesda, Maryland, and their son, and his family, Pvt. Laverne Wadsten of Fort Custer.

They and Mrs. Dallas Bailey of Howell and Mrs. Stella Gates were dinner guests.

U-M Expands Services To Small Business

Service to Michigan small business is being expanded at the University of Michigan.

A field representative has been appointed to coordinate the University's facilities with the particular needs of local businessmen in the State.

Richard Cook, of Lansing, who received the Master of Business Administration degree from the university in February, will be a representative for the Extension Service and the Bureau of Business Research.

Part of his work will be setting up sales refreshers, courses and cooperating with state trade associations. Courses have been given in Coldwater, Plymouth, Frankfort and other communities.

Universalist Women Hear Book Review

Lillian Adams Ammerman of Wayne University will give a book review at a tea in Adams Hall of Farmington Universalist Church, Warner and Thomas Streets, Sunday afternoon, April 15.

The program is being presented by the Association of Universalist Women, beginning at 4:30. The public is invited. No admission will be charged.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear mother and grandmother, Minnie M. Davis, who passed away April 3, 1948.

Her life is beautiful memory. Her absence a silent grief. She sleeps in God's beautiful garden.

In the sunshine of perfect peace, the Daughters, Daisy, Edna; son Thomas, and Grandchildren.
