200 ATTEND COUNTY FARM BUREAU PARTY AT BLOOMFIELD

Over 200 people attended the Oak County Farm Bureau party at West Bloomfield Township Hall last Thursday evening. Entertainment at the party was provided by each Farm Bureau.

Mrs. Floyd Howard and Mrs. Ivan Knapp contributed a song and a reading as West Farmington's entertainment. The Farm Bureau group gave a tableau on nursing care in Russia. Janet Long, daughter of Carlos Long of Milford, gave a piano solo. The Holly Farm Bureau group gave a three act play of a mock wedding.

Bill Daines, son of Mrs. Dorothy Daines, was elected Union vice-president in the Dentistry School at the University of Michigan. Bill is a sophomore at the University. More than 30,000 votes were cast in the basement for refreshments.

Guest At Baptist Church

Richard Pauline, Miss Johnson Wed

Rev. J. C. Thiessen

Formerly superintendent of the Detroit Hebrew Christian Mission, will be guest speaker at the morning and evening service of the Baptist Church this Sunday, May 13.

The church will also hold its officers

of the newly-formed

Association

of University women

will be chosen when the group meets May 24 at the home of Mrs. Paul Calkins, 23230 Power Road.

About 30 prospective members of the proposed branch met at the home of Mrs. Royal E. Davis Thursday evening to approve a set of

by-laws.

The by-laws were read by Mrs.

Clarence Stoll, chairman of the committee including Mrs. Gregg

Porter, Mrs. Virginia Clegg, Mrs.

Willa Brandenburg and Mrs. Joseph Wolfe.

Following the discussion, the by-laws were approved and will be forwarded to the National Association for acceptance.

Mrs. Paul Calkins, temporary

chairman of the group, has appointed a nominating committee composed of Mrs. Lloyd Smith, Mrs.

Frances Lippert, Miss Ruth

Bibley, Mrs. Roy Plunkett and Mrs.

Nate Mihay.

An invitation to attend the Michigan state convention of the A.

A. U. W. at Lansing was extended to the group.

Farmington WAVE Ends Great Lakes Training

Shirley D. LeBlanc, seaman recruit, WAVES, USN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond D. LeBlanc of 21450 Whittington, has recently plunged from the civilian to the military life.

Seaman LeBlanc is now home on leave. She is to be transferred to Jacksonville, Florida.

A U. S. Navy recruit, she has now completed training at the U. S. Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Illinois. For the past few weeks she has been filled with drill, training, identification, and ships; how, why, and whom to salute; the background of Naval courtesy, history, organization, and how to live harmoniously and efficiently as a member of a large and complex organization.

Children's Aid Speaker
Guest At PTA Meeting

Mrs. Dorothy LaCamera of the Michigan Children's Aid Society will be the guest speaker at the May meeting of the Clarenceville Parent Teachers Association, to be held at the school, May 15, at 8 p.m. at the high school.

Mrs. LaCamera's subject will be "Emotional Needs of Children".

The elementary schools will provide entertainment in the form of a musical play under the direction of Leo LaRue.

Business session will include installation of officers by Mrs. Austin Act.

Mrs. Ralph Noble Named
Woman's Club President

Mrs. Ralph Noble was re-elected president of the Farmington Woman's Club May 2 when the group met at the home of Mrs. Elmer Dooley at 28245 Eight Mile Road. Mrs. George Pufford was named secretary and Mrs. Lester Morrison treasurer at the annual meeting. Roll call was answered by payment of dues.

An invitation to attend the Michigan state convention of the A. U. W. at Lansing was extended to the group.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Wesley Mattson of Detroit, wore an aqua taffeta gown fastened after the bridal gown. Her hat with long streamers and mitts matched the gown, and she carried a bouquet of white rose buds.

The maid of honor, Barbara Henke, wore a lavender gown with a lace lace cap, scalloped neckline, over taffeta. She also wore a white overskirt worn over taffeta. Her hat and mitts also matched.

The junior bridesmaid, Carol Hoskins of Detroit, wore an identical gown in rose color. Both attendants carried yellow roses.

Little Randolph Mattson of Detroit was the ring bearer, carrying a satin cushion. He was dressed in a dark tuxedo with a white satin sash.

The flower girl, Mrs. Elizabeth Gardner of Detroit, wore a white rose taffeta floor-length gown trimmed with nylon net, with bonnet and mitts to match.

The groom was attended by Mr. Charles Step, and the ushers were Matt Tikkane, Matthew Mattson and Wesley Mattson. Rev. Elmo Gortner officiated, with Mr. Arthur White rendering two solos while Mrs. Alice Ala presided at the organ.

The bride's mother chose a dusty pink dinner gown with navy accents.

Oven cooking can be expensive if only one food is baked. Michigan State College home economists say you can avoid this waste of fuel by planning menus with several oven-cooked foods in them.

The first trees as we know them, with more-or-less solid wood and needle-like leaves, appeared in the Permian Age, 235 million years ago.

A reception was held in the church parlors following the ceremony. Guests attended from several neighboring cities.

After the ceremony the young couple left for a week's trip to New York City. They will make their home in Farmington.

GIVE PIANO RECITAL

Dotty Baldwin, Mary Helen Cooly, Jane Boyce, Sylvia Jean Bates, Judy McNeill, Lois Ayres and Debra Domes, all pupils of Ruth Day of Detroit, will appear as pianists at the Music Forum's Spring Musicfest at 8 p.m. in the McGregor Library May 7.

What Our Credit Control Service Does For You!

Credit Information

Credit information is gathered and compiled in a monthly listing, which is sent to all the members in each community. This information is available to MEMBERS ONLY. The listing will inform each member of those persons in his community who are a poor credit risk. This makes it possible for a member to determine the advisability of extending credit.

Collection Service

The Association collects, at no extra cost to the member, all accounts reported as delinquent. This is accomplished by approved methods which save the member the large fees (15 to 50 per cent) charged by usual collection agencies.

Membership in the Michigan Suburban Credit Association provides a safe-guard, whereby, a member can extend credit on a safe and profitable basis.
