SEA SCOUT SHIP WORKS FOR FUNDS TO MOVE CABIN

Farmington Sea Scouts started their fund raising waste paper drive last Saturday. All day Saturday the Scouts collected paper from homeowners. They will continue their drive for the next two weeks.

Purpose of the current fund raising drive, which is aimed at cash donations as well as waste paper, is to finance the moving of the Scouts' log cabin. The cabin, now located in the Town Hall Park, has been written off as unworthy of repair by the city. Scouts plan to move it to a new location.

Assisting in the movement will be Explorer Scout Post 13, from Pontiac. The Post is led by Bill DeGrace. Both Sea and Explorer Scout groups are composed of teenage youths. The Sea Scout Ship, which is seeking new members, meets Tuesdays at 6:30 p.m. at the Town Hall Park.
