

Motorboat Complaints Now In Season

Summertime blues . . . the motorboat complaint season is on. The conservation department points out to those with legitimate complaints that the sheriff and state policeman, as well as the conservation officer, are empowered to enforce the regulation against operating a motorboat so as to endanger life or property.

At the same time, the department's law enforcement division reminds fishermen and other lake users that motorboat operators have a right to use the lake as well . . . providing they do so in a reasonably safe manner.

All outboard motors must have properly operating factory stock mufflers except in properly supervised speed trials.

Restaurant To Open With New Managers

The Blue Bird Restaurant at Grand River and Eight Mile Road opens September 4 under new management. The new management, composed of George Knowlton, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Knowlton of Farmington, and Howard Phillips of Walled Lake, is in the process of completing alterations and redecorations.

Both men have been employed in restaurant work for several years in Detroit and are combining their talents in a business of their own. The restaurant will be open from 6 a.m. to 7 p.m. daily.

The essential nature of the crisis through which we are living is neither military, nor political, nor economic, but moral.

SPRINGBROOK SCENES

Mrs. Howard Legg
PHONE FARMINGTON 3311-W

Perhaps some of you are wondering how all the people I've been writing about could live on one street — well, they don't. We originally started out on Springbrook Drive but we have spread to surrounding neighborhoods as well. So if you hear of any news around you, please give me a call and we will be glad to help you.

Mr. and Mrs. George Elliott of Floral Street have just returned from a trip to Tuckers Town, Bermuda, where they were guests of the Electrolux Company. They flew by American Airlines to New York City where they stayed at the Waldorf Astoria and then by Pan American Airlines to Bermuda. The pink sandy beaches surrounding the Castle Harbour Hotel where they resided and the motor bike trips to nearby Hamilton were excellent only by the thrilling spectacle of the colorful Gypsies dancers. The week sped by too rapidly and they returned home via New York and another week end at the Waldorf Astoria. Little Claudia and Georgia also enjoyed themselves while mother and daddy were away by visiting both of their grandparents.

The Gassner home was a busy household Saturday when Mrs. Ernest Smith has returned home from St. Joseph's Hospital in Pontiac after his recent illness. Mrs. Paul Nichols traveled to Detroit to visit her relatives and to bring her daughter Nancy home. Nancy, who has been away two months, will really be pleased to see the eight fuzzy additions to her dog "Buntyn's" family.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wisman and Patty from Kentucky recently visited Mr. and Mrs. Willis Johnson on Flik. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Telcher and daughters, Sandy and Shelvin, of Detroit, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Webber at their home on Tuck Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Petko of LaMar entertained friends from Wisconsin recently. We climbed the back fence, so to speak, Sunday to have dinner with Mr. and Mrs. William Legg to help celebrate Mrs. Legg's birthday.

Miss Marion Damon of Lansing was a week and guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Jones of Springbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Atwell of Royal Oak spent Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Homer Kendrick of Springbrook.

Mrs. John Aland, Sr., of Shlawassee, saw her first night baseball game with Mrs. Hattie De-

Friend when the Tigers played the Yankees in a double header. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hug and sons were visitors in Detroit on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Orr and their three young sons are spending the entire month of August visiting out of state. Mr. Samuel Mitchell has returned to his home in Montreal after two months vacation with his son, Mr. Owen Mitchell of Floral.

Mrs. Owen S. Mitchell of Floral and her sister Mrs. Richard Holliday were visiting in Windsor this week.

Mrs. Edna Byers of Pontiac was visited by her sister Mrs. John Aland, Sr., on Tuesday.

The first birthday celebration for Susan Myratt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orbie Myratt was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barber and Judy and Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Barber.

Bobby Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Smith has returned home from St. Joseph's Hospital in Pontiac after his recent illness.

Mrs. Paul Nichols traveled to Detroit to visit her relatives and to bring her daughter Nancy home. Nancy, who has been away two months, will really be pleased to see the eight fuzzy additions to her dog "Buntyn's" family.

Dear Editor:

Wake up Farmington Township people. Do you know what is going on? If you have a vacant lot next to you, you may wake up some morning to find a streeter home next to you, or a trailer camp or most anything else that is undesirable. Why not get out to the meetings and help your Zoning Board in protecting your home. Someday take a ride through your own town, respectable township. A voter for zoning and a property owner for 30 years. Amella Farrand 22330 Ruth Street.

Pfc. James Beall Takes Administrative Course

Private First Class James W. Beall, son of Mrs. James W. Beall of 22315 Colgate, Farmington, was recently transferred to temporary duty at Kansas State Teachers College of Emporia, Kansas, one of the civilian contract schools where Air Force personnel are now in training, to begin technical studies in the Air Training Command's administration course, according to an Air Force news release.

The course lasts 12 weeks. Upon successful completion of the training, Pfc. Beall will be returned to his home station at Forbes AFB, Topeka, Kansas.

Mrs. Frazer Huitts
28450 Haggerty — Farm. 1622-R1

The regular meeting of Cub Scout Den Eight was climaxed with a celebration honoring its newest member, George Green, on his eighth birthday. His mother, Mrs. Wendell Green, served ice cream and cake to the members.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Mahle and sons of Schroeder Road are enjoying a week's vacation at Straits Lake.

Week end guests at the Frazer Huitts home were Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Butler of Rosecommon.

Helping Mrs. Henry Prokoff of Haggerty celebrate her birthday on Sunday were her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Campbell and daughter Vicky of Berkeley and Mr. Prokoff's mother and sister, Mrs. Clara Prokoff and Miss Dorothy Prokoff of Detroit.

John Amberger of Detroit was a recent caller on a few of his former neighbors here. He extended an invitation for them to visit him at his new home located at the corner of Linden Street, which is directly behind Montgomery Ward's store on Grand River. He also stated that his daughter Betty and two children are now living in Toledo but are preparing to leave soon to join her husband, who is in service overseas.

Second Lieutenant Donald M. Kobman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kobman of Halsted Road, has received orders to report for duty September 10 at Fort Riley, Kansas. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Yarian and son Stephen of Glen Muir (formerly Rollcrest) were Sunday dinner guests of friends at Clarkston in honor of Mrs. Yarian's birthday.
