Orchard Methodist WSCS Holds Social Meeting

Members of the Orchard Methodist W. S. C. S. met with Mrs. Albert Merrow Thursday evening, September 20, for their social evening of the month.
Program chairman, Mrs. A. G. Leonard read the program for the coming year, which includes a bake sale at Brown's Grocery on Saturday, October 6.
The program for the evening consisted of two readings by Mrs. C. M. Carlson and Mrs. Arden Calhoun. A story selected from a book, "A Guide to Confident Living," was read by Mrs. A. G. Leonard.
Games were enjoyed by all and the hostess served refreshments.
The next meeting, a business meeting, will be held at the church.

Members Of Farmington Bank Staff Honored At County Bankers' Banquet

Dorothy Hendryx, Donald J. Heuser, Frances Heuser and June E. Strand of the Farmington State Bank were among five members of the Oakland County Chapter, American Institute of Banking, who received recognition at the annual banquet of the Oakland County Bankers' Association held Thursday evening, September 20.
The four were honored for their successful completion of one or more classes during the year.
The affair was held at the Northwood Inn in Royal Oak and the principal speaker was Benjamin E. Young, General Vice President of the National Bank of Detroit. He talked on the subject, "The Value of AIB Education To Bank People". Also on the program was N. W. Peterson, Executive Vice President of the Community National Bank of Pontiac, who introduced students who had completed classes during the year and awarded two Pre-Standard and five Standard Certificates to those students who had finished two and four years respectively of study on banking subjects. This is the first time in the history of Oakland County Chapter that the Standard awards have been made.
John S. Black, President of Oakland County Chapter and Assistant Treasurer of the Ferndale National Bank, awarded a past president's pin to Robert G. Coulton of the Wayne Oakland Bank and reported the Chapter's plans for the year. Mr. Herman E. Erke, President of the Oakland Bankers' Association and Vice President of the Birmingham National Bank, presided during the evening.

Mr. Howard M. Warner, President of the Farmington State Bank, was invited to sit at the speaker's table. Mr. Heuser is a member of the Chapter Board of Governors and Chairman of Publicity for the Oakland County Chapter. All bank personnel in the county, their husbands, wives and friends were invited to attend the banquet. Dancing followed the program.

YMCA To Give 45 Adult Evening Courses

The Downtown Y. M. C. A. announces 45 informal Adult Education evening classes to be given in the ten-week Fall Term starting the week of October 8. These courses are open to men and women and will be held Monday through Friday in the Downtown Y. M. C. A. building.
Courses are limited, to insure individual attention and help the students. Teachers are selected for their ability, to teach skillfully at the adult level. Enrollment is open to all men and women over 18 years of age, regardless of educational background. For free descriptive catalogue, call Cody Moffat, Adult Education Director, W06ward 2-6125, Extension 18.

Noble PTA To Meet

The second meeting of the Noble P. T. A. for the year 1951-52 will be Monday, October 1, at 8:00 p.m. in the Middlebelt School. An interesting program is being planned. Mr. William E. Wilson, president of the association, presented an excellent film at the September meeting.

Mrs. Elven Kent and daughter Dianne of 33205 Shilohwasse traveled through the south visiting her husband's parents for three weeks. She returned Sunday morning.
Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Getts of Melvin Avenue have returned from a two week visit at Montreal and the Thousand Islands in Canada.

Seaman Goers Serving Aboard USS Piedmont

Carl J. Goers seaman, U.S.N. son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Goers of 22405 Cora Street, is serving aboard the destroyer-tender USS Piedmont, flagship of the UN Blockading and Escort Force, in the Far East. Navy authorities report.
The Piedmont recently returned from the Orient for a second time in a year. Operating in Japanese coastal waters at the outbreak of hostilities in Korea, she was rushed to Korea to participate in the Inchon landing.
Known as "mother ships," destroyer tenders are responsible for keeping warships in top fighting condition and are prepared to repair any trouble ranging from supplying a missing bolt to overhauling a boiler for ships on the fighting line.

Nominate Local Scouts For Fall Conclave

The annual Fall Conclave of the Chippewa Lodge, Order of the Arrow, Boy Scouts of America, will be held September 28 to 30 at Camp Agawan. General chairman for the conclave is Leroy Paschke of Farmington.
Forty Scouts of the Clinton Valley Council have been nominated for membership during the past year. These include George Fryer and Howard Banks of Farmington.
