Mrs. Frazer Hulst
28450 Haggerty - Farm. 1622-R1

Private First Class Albert Bidwell has been transferred from Fort Sampson, New York, to Colorado State College of Education at Greeley, Colorado. For friends who wish to write him, his address is Pte. Albert Bidwell, A.F. 16379064, 3464 School Squadron, Colorado State College of Education, Greeley, Colorado.

Mrs. Frazer Hulst was hostess to the Jolly Eight Club on Wednesday. Honors went to Mrs. James Van Dell, Mrs. Norris Hill and Mrs. Halls.

Mrs. Florence Bingham of Eleven Mile Road, with her sister and brother-in-law, arrived home Wednesday from Brockville, Ontario, where they went to take their cousins home who had been visiting here.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Ward have returned to their home at Jasper, Missouri, by way of the Smoky Mountains after a ten day visit with their son and family, the Charles Wards of Twelve Mile Road.

Mrs. Alfred Benson of Twelve Mile Road entertained a number of ladies at a desert luncheon honoring Mrs. Ward during her visit here.

Private Arthur Charlebois arrived home Friday evening from Camp McCoy, Wisconsin, for a nine day leave. Upon returning to camp he expects to be transferred for duty in Germany.

Dinner guests Sunday of Private and Mrs. Arthur Charlebois of Camp Dubek Road were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lelung, Rene Charlebois and Miss Mary Boyd.

Mr. Charles Jones of Windsor, who came on Saturday to visit his cousin, the Jack Hettricks of Haggerty, says that he is glad to know there are still honest people in this world. Mr. Jones hired a cab to take him from Farmington to the Hettricks home and upon leaving the cab he left his wallet behind but did not miss it until later. When he called the cab company he found it had been turned in by the driver, which was a great relief to all concerned.

Frances Abigail, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. May Margaret of Haggerty, was christened on Sunday at Christ Church, Detroit. Godparents were Mrs. William Mara of Twelve Mile Road and Mrs. Jack E. Miller of Detroit. Following the services, Mrs. Charles Morgana of Detroit, grandmother of Frances, entertained 16 guests at a dinner.

The Flying Needles Club was entertained by Mr. Nicholas Day of Gill Road on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Day and children of Gill Road attended the wedding of their niece Barbara (Jettelin) and Donald Lundquist at the Redford Presbyterian Church on Saturday evening. Timmy Day was ring bearer.

Baptist Church Begins Celebration Of 125th Anniversary This Week

An outstanding celebration is scheduled for this week at the First Baptist Church in Farmington in celebration of the 125th anniversary of the church.

A series of banquets are scheduled, featuring outstanding speakers as well as a colorful pageant by the young people of the church. The first banquet was held Wednesday, October 3, at 6:45 p.m. The Reverend Marvin Turner of the Halsey Baptist Church, Clawson, former pastor of the Farmington church and graduate of Farmington High School, was the guest speaker. On Friday evening, October 5, at 6:45, another banquet has been arranged.

REV. E. W. PALMER

scenes of the one hundred and twenty-five years of Baptist work in Farmington. Giving atmosphere to this pageant, will be a display of antiques.

Climaxing the week of rejoicing, a very interesting program is in progress for Sunday, October 7. Reverend Gilbert Miles from the John Memorial Baptist Church in East Lansing, a former pastor, will be guest preacher at the ten o'clock morning service. Dr. E. W. Palmer, of the Judson Baptist Church, Oak Park, Illinois, also a former pastor, will be the main speaker at the anniversary celebration in the afternoon service at two o'clock. Dr. Palmer will also speak at the 7:30 evening meeting.

Everyone is cordially invited to hear the banquet speaker at 8:00 p.m. Friday (reservations taken by phone).

On Saturday evening, October 6, at 6:30 a colorful pageant, in costume, put on by the young people of the Sunday school, will depict the Sunday services.

Obituary

John C. Landau

Mr. John C. Landau died at his residence, 564 S. Main Street, Plymouth, following several months illness on September 29, 1951.

He was born December 1, 1869, in Greenfield Township, the son of Christian and Caroline (Melow) Landau. He married Anna Westfall May 24, 1892, and had lived fifty-seven years on the Landau farm just west of the Farmington city limits, moving to Plymouth six months ago.

Besides his wife Anna, he leaves one daughter, Mrs. Roy (Gladys) Schroeder of Plymouth; one brother, Fred Landau of Northville; four grandchildren and one great grandchild. Three brothers, Charles, Julius and Herman, and one sister, Mrs. Katharine Westfall, preceded him in death.

Mr. Landau was a Charter member of the Salem Evangelical and Reformed Church of Farmington where funeral services were held at 2:00 p.m. Tuesday, with Rev. Carl Schultz officiating.

He was at the Spencer J. Heuser Funeral Home until 11:00 o'clock Tuesday and interment was in Oakwood Cemetery, Farmington.

By MRS. GEORGE WAITE

Mr. and Mrs. George Hilles, accompanied by friends, attended the Hillside Fair on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. William MacRobert were Detroit business callers on Monday.

On Sunday afternoon a group of 26 nieces and nephews dropped in on Mrs. Lillian Leavenworth to help her celebrate her 85th birthday. They were from Highland Lake, Howell, Farmington, Farmington, Farmington, Novi and Indiana. She received many lovely gifts and they served ice cream, cake and coffee. Many more happy birthdays, Aunt Lillian.

The Amvets Auxiliary held their third annual banquet at Saratoga Farms on Wednesday of last week. There were about 25 guests. The guest speaker was the new state president, Mrs. Marian Phillips of Kalamazoo. There were guests present from the Bemis Olsen Post of Kalamazoo.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Miller, Sr., were pleasantly surprised on their 25th wedding anniversary on Friday evening, September 21, when their son, Howard, Jr., and his wife and son Richard made arrangements for 60 relatives and friends to gather in the vacant hall of the MacRoberts delicatessen store on Grand River and as Mr. and Mrs. Miller came to the store, they were greeted by "Surprise" in unison.

The building was prettily decorated with blue and white streamers and flowers. Singing, dancing and games were participated in by the people attending. A delicious buffet supper with baked ham and all the trimmings was served, along with anniversary cake. The guests were from Wayne, Plymouth, Walled Lake, Farmington, Northville, Detroit, Whitmore Lake and Novi.

The couple received many lovely anniversary gifts. At a late hour the friends departed, wishing the Millers another 25 years of happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Moore celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary September 27.

A family get-together was celebrated by the Fred Weisner family at the home of their son George, 21401 of Jefferson Street on Sunday afternoon.

Little Tommy MacAskin of Hawthorne Street celebrated his fourth birthday September 30.

Heather McIntosh of Orchard Lake Road celebrated her sixth birthday Friday.

Miss Rita Murphy of Ottawa, Canada, is spending her vacation days at the home of her aunt and uncle, the Rois Moores of Beatrice Street.
