Couple Exchanges Wedding Vows

An altar decorated with white gladiolas and white mums provided the background for the marriage of Shirley Ann McFarquhar, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George McFarquhar of St. Mary Avenue, Detroit, to George Ray McCollum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McCollum of 4548 Eleven Mile Road, of the New Methodist Church Friday evening. September 28, in a double ring ceremony performed by Rev. J. M. Lucas.

The bride, wearing a lavender gown with lace bodice and a large lavender picture hat, carried garlands and baby mums as she walked to the altar escorted by her father.

Maid of honor was Mrs. Robert Hanson. Robert Hanson was best man.

A wedding reception at Devon Gables followed the ceremony.

The bride, who graduated from McKenzie High School in 1947, is employed at the office of the Diesel Motors Company in Detroit.

The groom, who graduated from Northville High School in 1947 and the Detroit Institute of Technology this year, is employed by the Woods Pharmacy, Detroit.

The couple left on a wedding trip to Georgia and will reside at 4548 Eleven Mile Road after their return.

Adult Education

(Continued from Page One) being held on Monday nights and the advance class on Wednesday nights. Tailoring will be taught as a part of the advance course. These classes meet for three hours each week.

Read that it is planned to conduct an advance class in sewing after the Christmas holidays to accommodate members who are enrolled in the first sewing class. The enrollment fee will continue at the rate of $6.00 per course, which includes 24 hours of instruction. Registration for the classes already scheduled will be taken at the Superintendent's office until the courses begin. Registrations will also be taken at the first meeting of the classes.

F. H. S. CROSS COUNTRY TEAM WINS MEET

Farmington High School's cross country team scored a win in its first meeting of the season, touring the Trenton and Bedford High Schools in a triangular meet at the Trenton grounds last Friday.

Farmington had 31 points, Trenton 36 and Redford Union 37. The scores are derived by adding the finishing positions of the first five members of a team.

The first man to cross the finish line for the two-mile trek was Farmington's Bob Mansfield, who finished in 11:19, while Stanly of Farmington finished third, Bud Pressey sixth, Glenn Shaw eighth and John Brunk thirteenth for the meet total. Dave Harris finished fourteenth and Bert Galbraith nineteenth to round out the thirty finishing.

In the reserve match with only Trenton and Farmington competing, Trenton nipped Farmington 29 to 31.

Coach Harold Humble reports the next meet for the Falcon Indians is with Walled Lake, there, on October 11.

Falcons Suffer

Walled Lake's final touchdown came in the third quarter on what started out as a fumble. With Walled Lake on Farmington's 31 yard line, the Lake's quarterback Pidley fumbled the ball to left half Nissen, who bobbled the ball. The ball rolled over toward the sidelines with Nissen chasing it. Suddenly it bounded into the arms and the scheme 31 yards for the score. Walled Lake ran the ball over for the final point after touchdown.

Mrs. Raymond Grewing and son Bobby were Monday callers of her parents, the Hugh McIntyres.
