Bridesmaids were Caroline Wells, Mrs. Nami Griffin and Mrs. Beulah Cowan.

Flower girl was five year old Loraine St. Dennis and four year old Donald Cowan was ring bearer.

The couple left for New York State on their wedding trip.

Fresh fruits should be stored in a dry place. Berries should be stored carefully on trays and sorted, but not washed until prepared for the table.

You can make a handy flower holder by sticking a potato full of holes with an ice pick for the stems. Then cut a sliver off the bottom to make it steady.

CAIN - BRENNAN WEDDING

A flower decorated altar with lighted candles provided the setting for the marriage of Myra, Claire Cain to John L. Brennan, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Brennan of Farmington, at a single ring ceremony performed by Rev. F. Murray at St. John's Catholic Church in Jackson, Michigan, Saturday morning, October 13. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Cain of Jackson, who formerly lived in Farmington.

For her wedding the bride chose a white embroidered bolero gown with a full skirt of net over satin. Her headpiece consisted of a matching embroidered cap with veil of illusion. She carried white dwarf nuts in a bouquet.

Nancy Everett, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Her gown was of mulberry taffeta with a lace detachable cape collar.

Bridesmaids were Beatrice Wahl and Helen Sappner.

Best man was Hubert F. Brennan, brother of the groom. Groomsman were Robert Van Every and William Blight.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents in Jackson with 100 guests attending.

The bride attended Michigan Normal College before her marriage. The groom, who graduated from General Motors Institute in 1951, is employed with George Muehl, Incorporated.

The couple left on a wedding trip to Virginia and Washington, D. C., and will reside in Farmington after November 1.

Married October 12 In Church Rites

MRS. J. DAVID DEWAR

A church decorated with poms and chrysanthemums set the background for the marriage of Marilyn Louise Eichler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray D. Eichler of 34703 Nine Mile Road to J. David Dewar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Murray M. Dewar of 2546 Fredericks Drive, Grand Rapids, at Northwest Baptist Church Friday evening, October 12. Rev. Hale Thornberry performed the ceremony.

For her wedding attire the bride chose an illusion and chantilly lace necktie gown with satin bodice and tiered net skirt. Her illusion train and veil were trimmed in chauntilly lace. Her flowers were gardenias and stephanotis.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Murray Dewar, Jr., sister-in-law of the groom from Grand Rapids, while Miss Barbara Eichler, sister of the bride, was maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. J. T. Schubel of Okemos, Michigan; Mrs. George Isley of Farmington; and Miss Doris Whitcroft of Birmingham.

Assisting his brother as best man was Murray Dewar, Jr., of Grand Rapids.

Ushers were J. T. Schubel of Okemos, George Isley of Farmington, William Barnett of Grand Rapids, and Fred Kalmback of Grand Rapids.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Eichler wore a mauve lace, over taffeta gown. The groom's mother chose a peach blossom gown.

Mr. Jack Davis sang "Through The Years", "I Love You", and "The Lord's Prayer". Mrs. Ruth Hick Hammond was the organist.

The couple left for a wedding trip in northern Michigan.
